

New DAR chapter formed locally

A new chapter of the Daughters of the Revolution formed recently as the official swearing-in ceremony was held at Mill Creek Baptist Church for the new Mill Creek Chapter.

The founding members, DAR state, and district officials met at Mill Creek Baptist Church for the Swearing-in ceremony of the Mill Creek Chapter of the DAR.

Frenchie Belcher, Regent called the meeting to order and recognized Linda Conrad, State Regent, who gave opening remarks and welcomed the newly founded chapter.

Regent Conrad and Second District Director Sharon Viers Williams both recognized Belcher for her efforts to establish the new chapter and secretary Kathy Moates addressed new members, emphasizing DAR's goals of promoting service to God, home, and country.

Conrad administered

the Oath to the Officers of the Mill Creek Chapter of DAR, followed by the oath taken by all founding members.

Frenchie added that Joel, from the William B. Harlan Memorial Library, had assisted in founding the chapter and expressed her appreciation. Mill Creek Chapter Chaplin, Saralu White gave the benediction and the meeting was followed by fellowship and a potluck provided by members.

Those attending the official ceremony of the new Mill Creek Chapter of the Daughters of the Revolution were (from left, seated) Helena Pitcock, Sharon Williams (KY DAR 2nd District Director), Frenchie Belcher (Mill Creek Chapter Regent), Monica Conrad (=KY DAR State Regent), Kathy Moats (KY DAR Organizing State Secretary), Saralu White, Barbara McCreary; (standing) Stephanie Hestand, Cindy Emberton, Ally Jones, Genelle Jones, Vickie Bryant, Tamara Baston, Diana Proffitt, and Leah Emberton.
