

MENIFEE COUNTY

Community Clean Up continues on Long Bow and Beaver Creek

Menifee County’s Community Clean-Up continues on Sunday, April 13, at Long Bow Marina at 12:30 p.m. Long Bow and Beaver Creek need some love with the flood waters receding. We need volunteers on kayaks AND volunteers for the land around the water. Bring your kayaks or SUPs out and we will get trashy at Cave Run Lake!

Text Tara Young at 606 782 0036. I will have a couple of kayaks to share. Don’t forget you need a life jacket on your body or on your kayak if on the lake... these regulations are enforced. For updates, visit the Facebook event page, Getting Trashy on Cave Run Lake in Menifee.

Aiden Manley honored by Ag Commissioner Jonathan Shell

Agriculture Commissioner Jonathan Shell awarded six Kentucky high school student-athletes involved in agriculture the 2025 Kentucky High School Athletic Association-Kentucky Department of Agriculture Ag Athletes of the Year awards.

“Being part of high school athletics teaches you teamwork, leadership, and resilience. Those are the same skills and strengths you need to find success in agriculture,” Commissioner Shell said. “These same skills can also translate to a successful academic career. At the Kentucky Department of Agriculture, we recognize a solid educational foundation can translate to great success in life, whether that education is through a four-year institution or a trade school. We are pleased to join our partners at the KHSAA to reward scholarships to the Commonwealth’s best young athletes and agriculturists.”

The 2025 Ag Athletes of the Year were named at a ceremony during the KHSAA Boys’ Sweet Sixteen® State Basketball Tournament on March 28 at Rupp Arena in Lexington. Two $2,000 scholarships and four $1,000 scholarships were awarded. The honorees were:

Outstanding Ag Athlete of the Year: Abby Knarr, Williamstown Independent High School ($2,000)
Outstanding Ag Athlete of the Year: Aiden Manley, Menifee County High School ($2,000)
Kenton Johnson, Mason County High School
Jackson Major, Fulton County High School
Laney Pease, Fleming County High School
Harper Richey, Caldwell County High School

The one-time scholarships, payable to an institution of higher learning, are awarded to high school seniors involved in athletics and agriculture who plan on continuing their education at a two- or four-year institution or trade school. The scholarships are supported by the “Ag Tag” Fund, which is financed by voluntary donations from Kentucky motorists when they buy or renew their farm vehicle license plates. Last year, Kentucky farmers donated $931,201.81 to the Ag Tag Program. The scholarships are just one way the funds are used to support Kentucky’s agriculture youth.

of Kentuckians think that publishing PUBLIC NOTICES in NEWSPAPERS should be required.

And for good reason...

Because Kentuckians rely on public notices for information about their communities that they just can't get anywhere else. When it comes to providing timely information about local events, legal announcements and government initiatives, your local newspaper delivers.
