

OBITUARIES

SHIRLEY BUTCHER

thusiasm with friends and family. Visits to the Dollar Tree were another delight for her, where small treasures could be found.

Shirley is predeceased by her husband, Gano Butcher, her stepdaughter, Susan Peyton, and her brother, Ralph Reed. Their memories remained close to her heart throughout her life, shaping the woman she became.

Survivors include her stepchildren, Gary Butcher (Patty) and Debbie Easterling, both of Owingsville, alongside seven grandchildren and a host of great-grandchildren who filled her life with joy. She cherished her relationships with her special friends, Phyllis Conyers, Helen Staton, and Juanita Gorrell, who brought laughter and companionship to her days.

A graveside service was held on Tuesday, May 6, 2025, at 11:00 AM at Owingsville Cemetery, located at 129 Cemetery St, Owingsville, KY 40360 with Pastors, Johnny Baber and Tim "Tinker" Ray and Rev. Lowell Rice officiating.

The Michael R. Gray Funeral Home at 89 Slate Avenue in Owingsville cared for all the arrangements for Shirley Butcher.

SARAH LOUISE HELTON

Sarah Louise Helton, 70, passed away Monday at UK hospital surrounded by her family on her birthday. She was born in Morehead, Ky on April 28, 1955 to the late Virgil “Cub” Thompson and Ora Smith Thompson.

She was a Bath County Dispatcher for well over 20 years and she loved her work and her co-workers. Their love for her has been shown in their awe inspiring actions and tributes since her passing. They’ve made her proud! She has been described as a social butterfly with a great big heart and a side of salty as she was strongly convicted in her beliefs. When she wasn’t at work keeping our first responders in line, she loved her farm life spending as much time as she could in her garden and with her precious furbabies. She was the exemplary wife and mother and her loss is felt deeply by her loving family who include... her husband Greg Helton of nearly 50 years; one son Greg, Jr. (Ashley) Helton of Owingsville; two daughters Christie (Jeffery) Collins and Alisha (Allen) Lucas all of Owingsville; one sister Jean Smith of Farmers, Ky; 5 grandchildren Jeffery Brian “Turtle” Collins, Madison Taylor Setters, Robert Blake Adams, Brooklyn Elizabeth Lucas, and Wyatt Allen Lucas; a special friend Janice “Aggie” Taylor and her furbabies Elmo, Bill, Suzie, Pookie, and Buster.

She will be joining her sister Josephine McCarty and her grandson Matthew Dylan Penick in paradise.

Friends may visit from 5-8 p.m. Friday at Richardson Funeral Home. Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Saturday by the Reverend Steve Meadows. A private family burial will be held at a later time in the Helton Cemetery.

CLYDE RAY MULLINS

Clyde Ray Mullins, 85, of Salt Lick, KY passed away Monday, April 28, 2025 at St. Claire Regional Medical Center. He was born January 14, 1940 in Sudith, KY to the late Corbett Mullins and Beryl Egelston. He was a retired Insurance salesman for Commonwealth Life and Woodmen of the World, he also worked at NCR. He attended Dayspring Church in Frenchburg, KY. Clyde like to fish and hunt, enjoyed playing cards and loved spending time with his family.

He is survived by his wife, Patricia Mullins, they were happily married for 63 years; sons, Bobby Mullins (Sandy) of Salt Lick, KY and Greg Mullins (Melody) of Salt Lick, KY; daughter, Melissa Mullins of Salt Lick, KY; sisters, Phyllis Byrd of Salt Lick, KY and Jeri Johnson of Winchester, KY; seven grandchildren; and ten great grandchildren.

In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by brothers, Paul Mullins and David Mullins; a sister, Betty Menix; and a grandchild, Andy Clemons.

A celebration of life will be held 2 PM, Sunday, May 4, 2025 at the home of Greg Mullins, 6731 South Highway 211, Salt Lick, KY 40371 for food, friends and fellowship.
