Center for Rural Development announces 185 students have been selected to attend Rogers Explorers

One hundred and eighty-five students – incoming high school freshmen - from Southern and Eastern Kentucky have been selected to participate in the 2025 Rogers Explorers Program.

Rogers Explorers is an intensive three-day, two-night summer leadership program presented by The Center for Rural Development in partnership with the University of Pikeville, Union Commonwealth University, Morehead State University, University of the Cumberland, Lindsey Wilson College, and Eastern Kentucky University.

The program is open to eighth-grade students in The Center's 45-county primary service area who have a strong interest in developing their skills in leadership, team building, community service, and STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math) fields of study.

“The Rogers Explorers Program encourages middle school students to develop their leadership skills, STEM disciplines, and explore new adventures while spending time on a leading Kentucky college campus,” said Lonnie Lawson, President and CEO of The Center for Rural Development. “We’re excited to welcome our 2025 Class of Rogers Explorers and for them to start their journey.”

Local students selected to attend are:

a skilled master carpenter and was respected for his expertise. His work was a testament to the pride he took in quality craftsmanship. When he retired from building, Earl began working at the Warren County Career Center in his early 70's and spent another twenty plus years as the groundskeeper there where he made many friends. In the later years of his life, he was able to focus on his chickens and gardening. His “green thumb” created a bountiful garden each and every year for decades and he took great joy in sharing the fruits of his labor.

William “Earl” McCarty was a very special man, a devoted husband and father and a friend to all.

Special appreciation to Rick, Tom, Bill, Mark and Greg for their unconditional love and support.

A Memorial Visitation will be held 11 a.m. – 1 p.m., Saturday, April 26, 2025, at the Dalton Funeral Home, 6900 Weaver Road, Germantown, Ohio where A Celebration of Life will follow at 1 p.m. with Pastor Danny Griffith officiating. Please share condolences at daltonfh.net

William “Earl” McCarty, age 96, of Carlisle, Ohio, peacefully journeyed to Heaven while at Kettering Health ~ Grandview, on Tuesday April 8, 2025, with his loving wife and daughter by his side. He was born of humble beginnings in Owingsville, Kentucky ~ Bath County, on August 4, 1928, son of the late Maudie M. (Craig) and Taulbee James McCarty, Sr.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother Taulbee James “Jr.” McCarty. Earl is survived by his wife of 74 years, Cora; his daughter, Rebecca McCarty; his sister, Thelma Bryant; one niece and two nephews.

Correction

In last week's edition, it was reported that the Menifee County Fiscal Court went into closed session at the end of their regular May meeting. This is incorrect. This reporter had to leave just as court members were preparing to enter closed session, but then they did not. We apologize for this error.

Bath County E911 is now accepting applications for the position of Director. Applications and a list of qualifications can be picked up at the Bath County Dispatch Center.
