Not your normal Days of Our Lives Recap

Boring Belle and Boring Chad prepare to go to Lexi's memorial after she was frozen like a popsicle, thawed out, sprung back to life, and died again.

And where is Xander and Sarah's daughter Victoria? We haven't seen her in weeks. Has Sarah's phone been on silent for weeks while the school calls for her to pick up her kid? She was too big for her baby buggy for a while there. Maybe she flung her leg over the side and took off down the interstate Fred Flintstone style.

That walking sack of lunatic Bubba Tooth Susan Banks is back in Salem. Wait, it's Kristen pretending to be Susan by wearing a wig and Bubba teeth. She wants to be near her sister Lexie's urn and talk to it. Not to be confused with the time she wore masks of everyone in Salem to do bad deeds and abuse the "only one the per customer" store specials policies by pretending to be different customers.

Julie Horton Williams dumped her special friend Foster because he's not Doug, her late husband, and the love of her psycho family sustains her.

Her friend Marlena, who leans forward a lot, can't keep her eyelids open, and looks like she's about to doze off in a nap any second, comforts her. Marlena needs to take some Vitamin C for energy. And maybe some Vitamin B, D, F, and G. And some HIJK.

The kid she misplaced in the 1990s, Dominique Marino, arrives in Salem and peeps through windows of Brady Pub to see his mama talking to EJ. He goes inside and introduces himself. Marlena perks up. EJs face twitches like a rabbit about to clamp down on a carrot.

Billy Daugherty and his employer Kelly Chapman, owner of Elite Aire, Mayfield, Ky., are shown at the Young Center Friday evening where a chili supper and silent auction fundraiser were held to offset Daugherty's upcoming medical expenses and for his wife Tisa's lodging during and after his procedure. "We feel so blessed," Tisa said following the fundraiser. You may still mail donations to the Daughertys at 949 Binford Road, Clinton, KY 42031.

Conservation Program Updates & Deadlines

Producers who submitted applications for the Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP), Conservation Stewardship Program (CSP), or Regional Conservation Partnership Program (RCPP) by September 24, 2026, must complete all required eligibility documentation by November 27, 2026, to remain eligible for FY2027 funding consideration. Applicants are encouraged to work closely with their local Farm Service Agency (FSA) office to ensure all eligibility requirements are met prior to the deadline. Local NRCS staff are also available to answer questions and provide guidance throughout the application process.

NRCS staff are currently coordinating with participants who have active Conservation Stewardship Program contracts to verify completion of activities scheduled for Fiscal Year 2026. Participants who wish to receive their annual CSP payment during calendar year 2026 should submit all required documentation to their local NRCS office in sufficient time for approval by December 4, 2026. For participants who prefer to receive payment during calendar year 2027, documentation must be submitted by February 12, 2027.

Producers with questions regarding contract requirements, documentation, or payment scheduling should contact their local NRCS office for assistance.

Veterans Meal planned for Nov. 14

American Legion Auxiliary Unit 3 will be honoring our area veterans and their family members at Post 3 with a home cooked buffet meal. Serving will begin at 11 a.m. Nov. 14.

A business meeting for members is scheduled at 10 a.m.. New memberships, renewals, and transfers are being accepted.

We are pleased to share some exciting news regarding the Auxiliary membership eligibility. With changes coming from the 2026 National Convention, membership has been expanded to include fathers, sons, grandfathers, and brothers, alongside male spouses of female veterans (whom we have accepted for several years).

The auxiliary supports veterans, active duty military, their families, and community. If you would like to be a part of sharing resources and networking, join us and help carry the mission forward.

The American Legion Post 3 is located at Ballard County Fairgrounds, 152 Fairground Drive, LaCenter, Kentucky.
