Paving crews from the Walker Company finished up resurfacing work last week at Owingsville Elementary School, the bus garage, and a portion of the road to Bath County High School. The much-needed paving work was made possible through left-over construction funds from the Bath County High School renovation and LAVEC (Local Area Vocational Education Center) renovation projects, which are both nearing completion before the 2025-26 school year.

What is this?

Rudy! There's Slime everywhere.

Sorry! Linus and I were playing.

We need help now.

SUMMARY OF ORDINANCE NO. 01-2025

The Bath County Fiscal Court will hold Second Reading and vote on the following Ordinance on July 10, 2025. The Ordinance relates to Street Legal Special Purpose Vehicles. The ordinance allows for the operation of street-legal special purpose vehicles on certain highways within the Commonwealth of Kentucky if allowed by local government within said county. The Ordinance allows to the extent permitted by Section 1 (1) of the 2025 Ky Acts Chapter 89 and as may be amended in the future, on all highways that are located within the jurisdictional limits of Bath County with the exceptions and prohibitions as set forth more fully in said Ordinance.
You may obtain a full copy of Ordinance No. 01-2025 at the Bath County Judge Executive's Office.
