Beshear seeks additional federal flood aid

On Tuesday, Gov. Andy ed by the most recent we are asking President Beshear announced that flooding. he has sent two additional requests to FEMA seeking aid for families and communities affected by April's floods.

requesting families in 16 County. Beshear also more counties receive renewed his request for Individual Assistance to help them recover. On April 25, the Governor announced that President Donald Trump had approved part of his April 11 request for a Major Disaster Declaration, which included Individual Assistance for Kentuckians in 13 of the counties affect-

Second, the Governor is now requesting Public Assistance for 64 counties in which FEMA has validated damages. This First, the Governor is includes Breckinridge approval for hazard mitigation for the entire state.

> At the time of the initial request, the Governor noted that more counties would be added to the declaration through an amendment process as assessments are completed.

Trump to approve federal aid for additional counties and families affected by April's floods," Beshear said. "These funds are crucial in helping our families and communities rebuild, and we are planning to add even more counties later this week. We are committed to making sure our families get the help they need."

Monday, the Governor announced that FEMA Disaster Recovery Centers (DRC) are open in eight of the first 13 counties approved for Individual "As promised, today Assistance for April's floods. eral Emergency Managecounties approved for Individual Assistance — Anderson, Butler, Carroll, Christian, Clark, Franklin, Hardin, Hopkins, Jessamine, McCracken, Mercer, Owen, and Woodford can visit any DRC for recovery assistance and to apply for federal aid. All 13 counties are expected to have a DRC by April 30.

Residents and business owners who sustained losses in the designated counties can begin applying for assistance at DisasterAssistance. gov, by calling the Fed-

Families in the first 13 ment Agency (FEMA) at ry residence, and that they 800-621-FEMA (3362) or have not received assisby using the FEMA App. Anyone using a relay service, such as video relay service (VRS), captioned telephone service or other similar service, can give FEMA the number for that service.

Those applying for assistance must:

Apply for the correct declaration (April Flood DR-4864).

• Upload their documents online via the FEMA App or by visiting DisasterAssistance.gov.

 Make sure their damaged home is their primatance for the same losses from another source, including insurance.

• Be able to be reached by FEMA at the contact information provided in the application.

Those who disagree with FEMA's decision may appeal:

 Online at DisasterAssistance.gov.

• In person at a Disaster Recovery Centers, which will open in coming days.

• Or by mail or fax.

Submitted

Nearly $390K donated through KFB's Clays for a Cause fundraiser

On Tuesday, April 22, Kentucky Farm Bureau (KFB) Insurance hosted its seventh annual Clays for a Cause fundraising event, bringing in $389,473 in charitable donations to support the fight against food and housing insecurity in Kentucky. This event has now raised nearly $2.1 million in charitable donations since its inaugural shoot in 2019.

"When we launched this event seven years ago, we were curious to see if we could rally enough support to make a noticeable difference for our fellow Kentuckians in need," said John Sparrow, Executive Vice President and CEO of KFB Insurance. "Now, seeing the outpouring of generosity at this year's event push our contribution total over the $2 million mark in just a few years' time, I'm humbled to think about the impact we're helping make across the state."

The sold-out sporting clays event, held at Jefferson Gun Club in Brooks, Ky., was attended by approximately 370 participants and supported by 54 sponsoring companies. As KFB Insurance underwrites 100% of the expenses to produce this event, every dollar raised from sponsorships, participant fees, silent auction items, and donations is given directly to the selected charities or causes. This year, the proceeds will again be used to support local hunger relief efforts organized through Feeding Kentucky, Glean Kentucky, and Kentucky

Kentucky Farm Bureau executive leadership poses with representatives from each of the non-profits receiving a share of the nearly $390,000 raised during this year's Clays for a Cause. Pictured left to right: Roger LaPointe, KY Hunters for the Hungry Executive Director; Larry Clark, KFB 2nd Vice President; Tom Hebert, KY Hunters for the Hungry Chairman; Travis Purcell, Glean KY Board Chair; John Sparrow, KFB Insurance Executive Vice President & CEO; Jennifer Palmer, Glean KY Executive Director; Eddie Melton, KFB President; Kristin Ingwell-Goode, Feeding KY Development Director; Drew Graham, KFB Federation Executive Vice President; Melissa McDonald, Feeding KY Executive Director; Shane Wiseman, KFB 1st Vice President; Angela Brooks, Habitat for Humanity of Metro Louisville Chief of Staff; and Rob Locke, Habitat for Humanity of Metro Louisville CEO.

ing program run by Habitat for Bureau has provided critical sup- true, but they are also raising Humanity of Metro Louisville.

"Uplifting our neighbors facing food insecurity is a cause we can all support. Through Clays for a Cause, Kentuckians gain the opportunity to give back, together," said Melissa McDon- and the Clays for a Cause event. stability, and self-reliance thor- com/insurance/clays-for-aald, executive director of Feed-port for Farmers Feeding Ken- awareness of the growing chaltucky, helping us connect more of our neighbors to healthy, local food. now and into the future."

"Habitat for Humanity is so grateful for the support of KFB Not only are they providing gap lenges facing families seeking to buy their first home," added Rob Locke. CEO of Habitat for ough the power of homeowner-support of sponsors like Kentucky Farm Bureau has afforded our program the opportunity to expand our services to additional communities and groups in need. These opportunities have resulted in record growth of the program for the past three years and exciting new programs to expand our outreach and impact," said Roger LaPointe, executive director of Kentucky Hunters for the Hungry. "We are grateful for our generous sponsors and the sportsmen and sportswomen who help us continue our mission to alleviate hunger in the Commonwealth."

The support Glean Kentucky receives from Clays for a Cause each year is instrumental in sustaining the critical work we do to fight hunger and prevent food waste," said Jennifer Palmer, executive director of Glean Kentucky. "The funds we receive in 2025 will especially help us to invest in our North Central program, which is experiencing exceptional growth as it expands to serve even more of our neighbors in need. We are deeply thankful to Kentucky Farm Bureau and all Clays for a Cause participants for their contributions to our mission — the positive impact of your generosity on our organization and our community is profound."

The eighth annual Clays for a Cause fundraiser will be held next year on April 21, 2026. For Humanity of Metro Louisville. more information about the "Together we can build strength, event, visit https://www.kyfb. cause/.

Hunters for the Hungry, as well ing Kentucky. "Our longstanding funding to help make families' as to assist the affordable hous- partnership with Kentucky Farm dreams of homeownership come ship.

Shell proclaims April as Goat Month in Kentucky

ers and industry stake- of protein and dairy prodholders joined Commissioner of Agriculture Jonathan Shell Thursday as our state's agricultural outhe signed a proclamation look." declaring April as Goat Month in Kentucky.

Kentucky goat produc- also an excellent source ural skin products, such as ucts. This month, we salute all that goats add to

In the United States, goats are primarily used "This month we cele- for producing dairy prodbrate the diversity goats ucts, such as milk, yogurt, bring to our agricultur- and cheese, and meat al landscape across Ken- called chevon. Kentucky tucky," Shell said. "They has 5,800 dairy goats procertainly add a uniqueness ducing quality breeding to farm life, but they are stock, and healthy, all nat-soaps and lotions, ranking the state 23rd in the U.S. for milk goat production.

The popularity of goat meat is increasing each year as consumers recognize its benefits. Goat meat is lean with low levels of saturated fat and cholesterol, high levels of iron, and packed with proteins and vitamins. Kentucky ranks

SEE SHELL/PAGE B5

Kentucky Commissioner of Agriculture Jonathan Shell signs a proclamation declaring April as Goat Month in Kentucky. Witnessing the signing Thursday afternoon at Shell's office in Frankfort were, from left, goat farmer Donna Slack, of Creative Farms; Beth Johnson, president of the Kentucky Goat Producers Association and director of Regulatory Field Services in the Kentucky Department of Agriculture's Office of State Veterinarian; and dairy goat producer Logan Stoltman, of Stoltman Family Farm.

Kentucky Department of Agriculture

The City of Hardinsburg is now accepting bids for a replacement Rescue Truck. The Rescue Truck must meet or exceed the following criteria. Sealed bids may be mailed to City Hall at:

City of Hardinsburg ATTN: David Bollinger PO Box 149 Hardinsburg, KY 40143

Sealed bids must be turned in by Tuesday, May 13 at 11am Central Time, with the bid opening to follow. If you have any questions, please contact Hardinsburg City Hall at 270-56-2213

Custom Cab fire engine At least 4 riding positions No older than 2007 model No newer than 2012 model At least 1500GPM pump

- with current pump test At least 500 Gal water tank Foam system with at least
- 25 Gal tank At least 5kW onboard
- generator

Tire Tread at least 80 percent

No more than 100,000 miles Full height compartments on both sides of the body

www.breckheraldnews.com

EMPLOYMENT POOL MAINTENANCE

MANAGER The Breckinridge County Fisc al Court is currently accepting employment applications for the positions of Pool Maintenance Manager. Qualified individuals may apply at the ofice of the Breckinridge County Judge Executive, 208 S Main Street, Hardinsburg, KY 40143, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. For further information, please call the office at 270-756-2269. Breckinridge County Fiscal Court is an equal opportunity employer M/F/D.

EMPLOYMENT

The Breckinridge County Fiscal Court is currently accepting employment applications for the positions of: Pool Manager, Lifeguard and Gatekeeper. Qualified individuals may apply at the office of the Breckinridge County Judge Executive, 208 S Main Street, Hardinsburg, KY 40143, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. For further information, please call the office at 270-756-2269. Application deadline is Monday May 9th. Breckinridge County Fiscal Court is an equal opportunity employ-er M/F/D.

Eleanor Beard Studio IN HARDINSBURG, KY

Looking for Experienced Quilters, Seamstresses, and Cutters

As we celebrate our 104th year, we invite you to come work with us and learn to create beautiful, handcrafted items.

- Great work environment, close to home, and competitive pay.
- If you are an experienced seamstress, we would be excited for you to join our team.

Call 270-756-5103 to stop by for Application