a different guest join us and teach us something new we can use in real life. With each guest, we will have a craft available that comes with what they are teaching. There is no registration for this program, so, if your child is interested in learning something new, make sure you stop by!

Irvington Council reviews new fiscal year budget

BY MORGAN FILLMORE
THE HERALD-NEWS

The Irvington City Council received the proposed city budget for the coming fiscal year on Monday. At Monday evening’s regular city council meeting, the budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 was reviewed. The General Fund Budget is $911,476, and the Water/Sewer Budget is $1,010,491. Additionally, the first reading of the amended budget for the July 1, 2024-June 30, 2025 fiscal year was read and approved. The General Fund Budget is $919,158, and the Water/Sewer Budget is $1,415,735. A special called meeting for the new budget will be held Monday, June 23 at 6:30 p.m. EDT. In other business:

- A public hearing on the implementation of LGEA and road aid funds was opened at the beginning of the meeting, and no comments were made by the council or the citizens in attendance.
- New business licenses for the following businesses were approved: A&B Sheeran Properties, Dixie Plumbing and Heating, Action Compaction Solutions, and Simply Shine Pressure Washing. Renewal business licenses were also approved for IGA, Subway, Sunny & 75, Soulful Eats, A+ Seamless Gutters, and Alexander Funeral Home.
- City Clerk Sherrie

Lawson shared that 249 city stickers have been sold since October and that the stickers are now on sale for $15 each. Lawson also stated that revenues collected from Meade County RECC in the month of May totaled $39,380.67.

- Mrs. Jane Perks addressed the council about an issue regarding her chickens and rooster. She stated that the Assistant City Clerk approached her stating that the local ordinance prohibited having roosters on properties within city limits. Perks said she has had chickens and roosters for the last 40 years, and several of the council members said they were aware of this and would consider the possibility of amending the ordinance. Some individuals with certain animals have been “grand-fathered in,” and they said this may be a solution to the issue.
- The council discussed advertising for bids for the repair of the Cedar Hill Cemetery cross, the roof on the old jail building, and the concession stand at Eva Carman Park. Mayor Charles Douglas Lucas said that he would make a Facebook post regarding the matter as well.
- The city will host a Juneteenth Celebration on Saturday, June 14 from 12-4 p.m. EDT at Eva Carman Park and a Fireworks show on Saturday, June 28 beginning at 4 p.m. EDT. Food and vendors will be available at both events.
