

Wilson named KWC Vice President of External Relations

SUBMITTED

Kentucky Wesleyan College (KWC) is pleased to announce the appointment of Lindsay Wilson, M.S., CFRE, as its new vice president of external relations, effective Oct. 1, 2025.

Wilson brings nearly two decades of experience in higher education and nonprofit fundraising to her new role. A certified fund raising executive (CFRE) since 2012, she has personally raised more than $18 million through major gifts, annual giving, planned giving and grant requests.

Most recently, Wilson served as director of development at Florida State University's College of Motion Picture Arts, where she built strong donor relationships and advanced the school's culture of philanthropy. Her career also includes leadership positions with The Jesuits, University of Texas Medical Branch, San Diego Repertory Theater and The Children's Shelter in San Antonio.

A native of Mt. Vernon, Ind., Wilson holds a master of science in organizational leadership from Our Lady of the Lake University and a bachelor of science in public relations and advertising from the University of Southern Indiana.

"We had a tremendous pool of highly qualified applicants, but Lindsay quickly emerged as the campus consensus," said Dr. James Cousins, president of Kentucky Wesleyan College. "Her broad-based expertise, coupled with her proven leadership and relational strengths, make her exactly what Kentucky Wesleyan needs at this moment."

Wilson shared her enthusiasm about joining KWC. "It is an honor to be part of an institution so deeply committed to excellence and student success. I look forward to collaborating with faculty, staff, alumni and friends of the College to expand opportunities and strengthen support for Kentucky Wesleyan's future."
