On December 8, 1962, Mable was united in marriage to her loving husband of 62 years, Isaac Maggard, who survives. Mable was preceded in death by her parents Richard and Helen(Combs)Duff, two sisters Velma Jean Perry and Dorothy Duff, and a special honorary son Wiley Feltner. Mable, at a young age, as well as her whole life, had a passion for helping others. After graduating high school she went to Union College in Barbo-urville, Kentucky where she received both her Bachelor’s and Master’s Degrees in Elementary Education. She immedi-ately began her 28-year career in education as an elementary teacher at a one-room schoolhouse in Flackey, Kentucky. She was also known for setting up the first library at Hayes Lewis School in Leslie County, Ken-tucky. She taught many different grades and was also a librarian for Leslie County Schools before retiring. After Mable retired from teaching, she and her husband Isaac moved to Owen County, Kentucky. They began enjoying re-tirement being grandpar-ents to the children of the late Wiley Feltner and his wife Nora Feltner. During retirement she enjoyed sewing, read-ing, growing a garden, and spending time with her little dog “Ginger”. She also worked at the Dollar General Store in Owenton, Kentucky for 10 years before retiring again. In addition to her hus-band Isaac Maggard, she is survived by a sister, Linda Lou Beams (Rob-ert) of Indiana. A neph-ew, Ritchie (Rhonda), a niece Debbie (Pat), and great nephew and nieces Ritchie, Cassie, Jacob, and Ariel. She is also sur-vived by Nora Feltner, Crystal Garland (Clyde), Malena Marsh (Glenn), Kim Dalton, (Charles), Amanda Caddell (Mark), Patricia House (Ste-phen), and Wesley Felt-ner, 14 grandchildren, and 8 great-grandchil-dren whom always loved her and Isaac as family and grandparents. Mable also leaves to mourn her loss a host of extended family and friends. New Funeral Homes are in charge of arrange-ments. Family will re-ceive friends at their Main Street location on Thursday, January 16, 2025, from 11 - 1 pm and funeral services will fol-low at 1 pm. Burial will be in the Point Pleasant Cemetery with Bro. Wal-ter Fugate .

KHSAA, Friends of Coal Kentucky announce partnership from front fantastic, natural part-nership, and we are excited to continue to keep the light on and to help educate all about these resilient, reliable and affordable aspects of our daily lives.” As part of this col-laboration, Friends of Coal and the KHSAA will develop programs and initiatives that em-phasize the shared tra-ditions and values of Kentucky communities. By fostering an appre-ciation for coal’s contributions and the spirit of athletic competition, the partnership aims to inspire pride and unity throughout the Com-monwealth. “Families have passed down stories of working in the mines just as they have cherished memo-ries of cheering under the Friday night lights,” said Marsh. “These shared traditions bring our communities to-gether, reminding us of our shared history and collective strength.” This initiative marks an exciting new chapter for both organizations as they work together to uplift Kentucky’s youth and celebrate the state’s rich heritage. The KH-SAA and Friends of Coal are committed to ensuring this part-nership has a lasting im-pact, both on and off the field.
