Don't get caught out in the cold, create a vehicle

emergency kit

Source: Annhall Norris, food preservation and food safety extension specialist at the University of Kentucky Martin-Gatton College of Agriculture, Food and Environment

Preparing for an ice/snowstorm, or other potential natural disasters, is important in keeping you and your families safer. Winter storms can create dangerous roads and a higher risk of frostbite, hypothermia and carbon monoxide poisoning.

Having an emergency kit with essential items in your home is the first step to surviving such an event, but you should also think about your car. Creating a vehicle emergency kit can help you and your family be prepared if caught out during a winter storm.

Include these items in your vehicle and have them in a bag, bucket or small tote for easy access:

- Warm clothes (heavy coat, extra socks, gloves, hand warmers, etc.)
- Blankets
- Ice/snow scraper
- Bottled water
- Shelf-stable snacks (choose high protein foods to provide energy)
- Flashlight
- Cell phone charger and battery backup
- Jumper cables or battery-powered jump starter
- Sand or kitty litter (to help with traction if you are stuck in snow)
- Small or collapsible shovel
- Roadside flares or glow sticks
- Flat tire inflation canister (non-explosive)

During the winter months, always keep your gas tank full.

• Don't let it get low as you never know when you might be sitting for a while and unable to refuel. If you're stranded, only run the engine for 10 minutes each hour to charge your phone and run the heater.

• Be sure to open a window slightly, allowing fresh air to enter the car and avoid carbon monoxide poisoning while it's running.

Keep your vehicle(s) and home safer this winter season with these helpful tips.

Tips to Spring Clean Your Budget

(StatePoint)

With flowers blooming and birds chirping, you may be in a spring-cleaning mindset. As you spruce up your home, you can also channel that energy into getting your finances in tip-top shape! According to CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNING® professionals, here's how to clear away the cobwebs in your budget: Sort expenditures: If you've ever sorted your clothes and other items into piles during a spring clean, this budgeting principle will be familiar to you: Review your expenses and categorize them into needs, wants and expenditures you're ready to part with. Whether you do this on paper or electronically, use a color-coded system to visualize where your money is going. Review your streaming services: Electronic subscription bloat is common, as is paying for forgotten subscriptions after free trials end. For example, you may be subscribed to several of the most common entertainment streaming services, such as Netflix, Max and Hulu. Do you really need all of them? Whether it's an online newsletter or a music streaming service, cancel unused subscriptions. Avoid bank fees: Review your bank statements. Are you getting dinged with fees? Consider switching to a bank that doesn't charge an account maintenance fee. You can also set up notifications to avoid having your account get hit with an overdraft. If you do get charged, contact your bank to explain your situation — you may be able to have some fees waived.

Switch insurance carriers: Periodically review your insurance rates, and shop the market to see if better rates are available for home, automotive and other forms of insurance.

Reduce debt: If your debt is costing you a pretty penny, it's time to act. A CFP® professional or credit counselor can help you craft a plan for consolidating debt into lower-rate credit card accounts, refinancing your mortgage and reducing your overall debt burden. You should also automate credit card payments (and other bills) to ensure you aren't paying late fees. Pay yourself first: Earmark a portion of your budget to savings and investments each month. This will leave you with more money for your important goals and less for frivolous spending. To work with a CFP® professional who can help you roll up your sleeves and get to work on cleaning up your finances, visit lets-makeaplan.org. This spring, go beyond dusting the baseboards and mopping the floors. Refresh your finances for a fresh start to the season.
