

Lowry scores late in 2OT to rally Jets to 4-3 win over Blues

BY ATHE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WINNIPEG, Manitoba — Adam Lowry scored on a tipped shot 16:10 into the second overtime and the Winnipeg Jets rallied to beat the St. Louis Blues 4-3 on Sunday night to advance to the second round of the NHL playoffs.

Cole Perfetti had two goals, Vladislav Namestnikov also scored, and Kyle Connor and Neal Pionk each had three assists for Winnipeg, which scored twice in the final two minutes of regulation to tie the score. Connor Hellebuyck finished with 26 saves.

Lowry deflected Pionk's shot from the right point late in the second overtime to end the third-longest Game 7 in NHL history at 96:10.

"It's incredibly special," Lowry said. "I probably dreamt it was a little nicer than just going off my leg, but it's one of those things, on the outdoor rink, in the driveway, you dream about being the hero in a Game 7 and giving yourself a chance to continue chasing a Stanley Cup."

The Jets will next face the Dallas Stars starting Wednesday at home in the teams' first postseason meeting.

Jordan Kyrrou, Mathieu Joseph and Radek Faksa scored for the Blues. Jordan Binnington had 43 saves.

Winnipeg won the franchise's first Presidents' Trophy after having a league-best 56-22-4 regular-season record and were the favorites against the eighth-seeded Blues. They needed a late comeback to avoid getting knocked out in the first round for a third straight year.

"To lose in those first rounds, those were heart-breaking," said Jets first-year coach Scott Arniel, who was the club's associate coach the previous two seasons. "Last year, obviously with the season we had (52 wins), to do it this year we didn't want to go out. That was one of the messages I said to these guys, 'Bring your best game forward and have no regrets.' And that's what it was all about."

Winnipeg was down 3-1 in the third period when Namestnikov scored with 1:56 remaining after his shot went in off Blues defenseman Ryan Suter.

With Hellebuyck pulled for an extra skater, Winnipeg appeared to tied it up 50 seconds later, but a review ruled the puck didn't cross the goal line.

Perfetti then scored his second redirected goal of the game with 3 seconds remaining to lift 15,225 frenzied white-clad fans out of their seats inside Canada Life Centre.

"Even down 3-1, there was no doubt," Perfetti said. "We had belief in one another and belief that we were going to come back. I'm just so proud of this group and so proud to be a part of it."

Winnipeg went on the power play 6:20 into the first overtime when St. Louis captain Brayden Schenn was called for delay of game. The Jets tried to pound the puck in the crease, but Binnington covered it. He also stopped Nikolaj Ehlers on a break-away.

The Jets were without star center Mark Scheifele (upper body injury) for the second straight game and then lost top defenseman Josh Morrissey about eight minutes into the first period.

"To play this long of a game with five defensemen, it's pretty incredible," Ehlers said. "So hats off to those guys. They stuck with it."

The home team won each game in this series.

Kyrrou scored on the Blues' first shot of the game at 1:10 of the first period after he and Colton Parayko went on the rush. It marked the fastest goal to begin a Game 7 in Blues' history.

Joseph made it 2-0 after picking up a loose puck dropped by Connor in the neutral zone. Using Morrissey as a screen, Joseph sent a wrist shot past Hellebuyck on the stick side at 7:16.

Morrissey went to the Washington while Pimlico is under construction.

and Maximum Security, who was disqualified for interference, each did not participate in 2019, the races were run out of order in 2020, Bob Baffert-trained Medina Spirit was DQ'd for a positive drug test in 2021 and long shot Rich Strike was held out in 2022 to rest him for the previously planned five weeks.

Age finished third in the Preakness in 2023, and Mystik Dan was second last year after his owner and trainer also were initially reluctant to run him. The two-week turnaround from the Kentucky Derby to the Preakness and changes in modern racing have sparked debate around the sport about spacing out the races.

Prominent owner Mike Repole earlier Tuesday posted on social media a proposal to move the Belmont to second in the Triple Crown order, four weeks after the Kentucky Derby and sliding the Preakness back further with the aim of keeping more of the top horses involved.

"The Preakness being run two weeks after the Kentucky Derby, in this new day and age in racing, shows the lack of vision and leadership needed to evolve this sport," Repole wrote. "I expect the top three finishers of this year's Derby to skip the Preakness and go right to the Belmont."

No decision has been made on second-place finisher Journalism, who was the Derby favorite, or third-place Baeza for the 150th running of the Preakness, the last at Pimlico Race Course before it is knocked down and rebuilt. The plan is for the 2026 Preakness to take place at Laurel Park between Baltimore and
