

Rossi's penalty kick gives Columbus Crew 1-1 tie

BY JOE REEDY
ASSOCIATED PRESS

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Diego Rossi scored on a penalty kick in the second half as the Columbus Crew rallied for a 1-1 tie against FC Cincinnati in the 16th edition of the "Hell is Real" matchup between the Ohio rivals.

FC Cincinnati's Kevin Denkey scored in his second straight match.

Despite the tie, FC Cincinnati (9-3-2) is tied with the Philadelphia Union atop the Eastern Conference with 29 points.

It is the third straight tie for the Crew (7-1-6), who are in second place with 27 points.

Denkey opened the scoring in the sixth minute when he put it into the short side of the net. Luca Orellano and Sergio Santos kept it alive in the box before Evander made a bicycle kick pass for the assist to Denkey after Columbus goalkeeper Patrick Schulte was caught out of position.

Denkey is tied for third in MLS with eight goals. He has 10 goals in all competitions and is the fastest FC Cincinnati player to reach double digits since the club joined MLS in 2019.

Rossi converted the penalty kick in the 54th minute after FC Cincinnati's Nick Hagglund was called for a handball inside its own box. It was his team-leading seventh goal of the season and second on a penalty kick.

Cincinnati's Roman Celentano made a diving save in the 73rd minute, extending his left hand to stop a header by Jacen Russell-Rowe.

The Crew had a 9-7 advantage in shots and 63 in shots on goal. Celentano made five saves while Schulte had two.

Dodgers have younger stars now, but Kershaw reaching 18th season still special

BY NOAH TRISTER
AP BASEBALL WRITER

Clayton Kershaw made his season debut Saturday, and although his performance over four innings was forgettable, he still added another accomplishment to his illustrious career.

Kershaw has now played in 18 seasons for the Dodgers, tying the franchise record held by outfielder Zack Wheat and shortstop Bill Russell. Shohei Ohtani and Mookie Betts may have taken over as the team's big stars, but Kershaw's role in helping Los Angeles become a powerhouse should not be understated.

And like Russell, Kershaw has never played for any other major league team. That makes his tenure in Los Angeles even more special.

Here's a list of each team's longest-tenured player who spent his whole career with that franchise in that city. Only current teams — in their current locations — are included.
