Micah Parsons set to arrive in Green Bay today after joining Packers with record-setting deal

BY STEVE MEGARGEE
ASSOCIATED PRESS

GREEN BAY, Wis. — Micah Parsons is embracing the expectations that come from joining the Green Bay Packers with a record-setting contract.

“I just want to do whatever I can to help the Packers win a championship,” Parsons told The Associated Press on Friday, a day after the edge rusher was traded from the Dallas Cowboys and agreed to terms on a contract that makes him the highest-paid non-quarterback in league history.

Parsons, who will hold his introductory news conference in Green Bay on Friday evening, received a four-year, $188 million contract with $136 million guaranteed. The Packers sent two first-round picks and three-time Pro Bowl defensive tackle Kenny Clark to Dallas in exchange for Parsons, who already has 52 ½ career sacks through his first four NFL seasons.

Parsons’ new team could result in a new uniform number. At Dallas, Parsons had No. 11, which wide receiver Jayden Reed currently wears for Green Bay.

The 26-year-old Parsons hinted at a new number Friday when he went on X and asked, “Should I go 0 or 11”

Adding Parsons makes the Packers among the league’s top Super Bowl contenders after they reached the playoffs with the NFL’s youngest team each of the last two years.

Parsons shores up a pass rush that wasn’t reliable last season, when the Packers went 11-7 and lost at Philadelphia in the NFC wild card round. Parsons should make up a formidable pass-rushing tandem with Rashan Gary, who has 39 career sacks in six seasons.

Although the Packers had 45 sacks to tie for eighth in the NFL, more than half of them came in four games. They had no more than one sack in seven of their 17 games.

Parsons has recorded at least 12 sacks each of his four seasons, whereas the Packers haven’t had anyone collect that many sacks in a single season since Za’Darius Smith had 12 ½ in 2020.

For a franchise that is known for traditionally building its roster by developing its own draft picks, this represents a true swing for the fences.

This Packers team had plenty of solid players but lacked star power. Parsons instantly provides that.

Green Bay has a history of signing future Hall of Fame defensive players who can lead championship runs. Reggie White came over from Philadelphia and played a huge role on the 1996 championship team. Charles Woodson arrived from Oakland and helped lead the 2010 Super Bowl run.
