VERSAILLES – Several area golfers found success April 12 at the Woodford Club.

For the 15-18 boys, Taylorsville's Nicholas Green tied for third place with a five-over 76.

He was followed in fifth place by CJ Campbell of Mount Washington, who carted a 77, six over par. Will Armstrong of Salvisa had a 78, which was good enough for a tie for sixth place.

The crowded field saw Walter Webb of Shelbyville tied for 11th with a 79. Trevor McLaughlin of Shelbyville had an 80, which was good enough for a tie in 14.

Rocco Gordon of Crestwood had an 82 and 16th place. Asher Smith and Grant Roadcap, both of Shelbyville, and Carson Whitenack of Salvisa all had an 83, which was good for 18 place.

Harrison Wade of Shelbyville was the last of the local competitors to hit the leaderboard with a 96 and 23rd place.

In the boys 10 and under, Cooper Whitenack of Salvisa won with a three-over 40.

In the girls 15-18 contest, Avery Young of Lawrenceburg finished in 11th place with her 122 score.

And in the girls 12 and under, Makenna Coleman of Lawrenceburg placed second with her 55.

The Bluegrass Golf Tour is a series of events throughout Kentucky for youth golfers.

innings. Cox went 2-for-3 at the plate, and Landes drew two walks as Shelby County showed patience at the plate with seven total walks.

The final game of the day saw Shelby County beat Carroll County 5-2. Cox had a breakout performance, going 3-for-4 with a single, triple, and double. She drove in two runs, helping break a 1-1 tie in the sixth inning.

Carnes added an RBI single and also earned the win on the mound with a complete game. She allowed five hits and two runs while striking out one and walking none. Clark added two hits and stole two bases.

After the early loss in the week, Shelby County improved to 3-7 with a big day of wins, gaining confidence on both sides of the ball.

at the plate, drawing six walks in total and playing error-free defense behind the arms of Morris and Whitworth.

The following day, the Titans' offense came alive with 10 hits, but the team fell 8-6 in a back-and-forth contest against Woodford County at Falling Springs Center.

Cox continued his hot streak at the plate, going 3-for-4 with a double and an RBI. Trey Floden and Whitworth also notched multi-hit games, with Floden driving in a pair.

Collins took a 4-2 lead in the fifth inning after Cox and Morris delivered clutch singles, but Woodford County responded with a six-run surge in the bottom of the sixth. Despite the Titans' late efforts to rally, the deficit proved too large to overcome.

On the mound, Brady Gaither took the loss after allowing five runs (three earned) in 3.1 innings. Starter Carter Poole allowed two runs in two innings, while Jacob Stover closed out the game. The Titans stranded several base runners in key situations, and Woodford County capitalized on timely hits to seal the win.

Collins closed out the week with a hard-fought 3-0 loss to Christian Academy-Louisville on April 12.

Preston Miller pitched four innings, allowing three runs on four hits and striking out four. CAL scored all three runs in the opening frame, and their pitching staff held the Titans in check the rest of the way.

Titan infielder Alston Whitworth fires a throw across the diamond.

Despite being held scoreless, Collins scattered four hits, with Whitworth, Faulkner, Wooten, and Shafer each recording one. The Titans were unable to string hits together against CAL's pitching duo, who combined to strike out eight and allow just four baserunners across seven innings.

allowing seven hits and three earned runs while walking just two. Though she didn't record a strikeout, her ability to limit damage and stay composed proved vital in a high-pressure outing.

The Lady Titans produced eight hits from eight different players, with England, Renfro, Williams, and Bermudez each collecting an RBI. Collins also showed aggression on the base paths, swiping seven total bags, including multiple steals from both England and Renfro. The defense stood tall, playing error-free softball and recording six putouts from Williams alone.
