

Phillies clinch 2nd straight NL East with 6-5 win over Dodgers

BY BETH HARRIS
ASSOCIATED PRESS

LOS ANGELES — A barechested Bryce Harper poured a bottle of Champagne over his head, soaking in the Philadelphia Phillies' second consecutive NL East title.

Kyle Schwarber celebrated by chugging beer out of a hose as his teammates fed the contraption in the middle of a darkened visitors' clubhouse after the Phillies rallied for a wild 6-5 victory in 10 innings over the Los Angeles Dodgers on Monday night.

"You've got to enjoy this," Schwarber said later, puffing on a fat cigar. "This doesn't happen all the time."

The Phillies hope it keeps happening all the way through October as they chase the franchise's third World Series crown and first since 2008.

"We're playing really good baseball right now and just got to keep going and keep understanding we've got a bigger picture," Harper said. "We've got things on our mind that we want to win."

Philadelphia was already assured its fourth straight National League playoff berth on Sunday, when the San Francisco Giants lost to the Dodgers.

And with the second-place New York Mets idle Monday, the Phillies needed a win to become the first division champion in the majors this season. They blew three one-run leads before finally getting past the NL West-leading Dodgers for their ninth victory in 11 games, opening a 12 1/2-game lead over the Mets in the NL East with 11 to play.

Philadelphia had just one hit — Schwarber's 53rd homer — until the seventh
