

Lee, Urban Klavzar deliver from outside as No. 14 Florida beats 25th-ranked Kentucky 92-83

BY MARK LONG
ASSOCIATED PRESS

GAINESVILLE, Fla. — Xaivian Lee scored 22 points, Urban Klavzar added 19 and No. 14 Florida beat 25th-ranked Kentucky 92-83 Saturday for its 10th victory in its last 11 outings.

Lee and Klavzar took advantage of Florida's paint presence and hit a combined nine 3-pointers.

Thomas Haugh (17), Alex Condon (14) and Rueben Chinyelu (10) also scored in double figures for the Gators, who ended a six-game skid against the Wildcats at home.

Florida (19-6, 10-2 Southeastern Conference) had been 1-4 against Kentucky (17-8, 8-4) under coach Todd Golden. But the Gators led wire to wire in this one and finished with a 45-37 rebounding advantage. Condon and Chinyelu grabbed 11 boards each, both finishing with a double-double.

The matchup featured a unique subplot. Kentucky guard Denzel Aberdeem, who spent the last three years at Florida and helped the Gators win the national title last March, was "welcomed" back with a chorus of boos.

Aberdeem led the Wildcats with 19 points while getting taunted with chants of "Gator traitor" throughout. Collin Chandler added 18, and Otega Oweh chipped in 13.

Florida opened up a double-digit lead early but didn't put Kentucky away until a second-half spurt that included inside buckets from Condon and outside shots from Klavzar, who finished 5-of-11 shooting from behind the arc.

The Gators had several former players on hand for the sold-out game, including NBA rookies and Walter Clayton and Will Richard. Clayton, the MVP of last year's Final Four, and Richard were greeted with standing ovations when they walked to their courtside seats and when they were recognized in the first half. Matt Walsh (2002-05) and Matt Bonner (1999-2003) also made the trip to Gainesville.

KENTUCKY FISH AND WILDLIFE HOST PUBLIC MEETING

The Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources will conduct a public meeting Feb. 24 in Frankfort to discuss boat dock and shoreline use permit regulations at Beaver, Elmer Davis and Guist Creek lakes. Permits are necessary to construct a boat dock or encroach upon the department-owned buffer zones around these state-owned lakes. The department is seeking public input to develop updates to these regulations, which only affect those lakes owned by Kentucky Fish and Wildlife. The meeting is scheduled for 6:30-8 p.m. (Eastern) Tuesday, Feb. 24, at Capital City Christian Church, 15 Locust Drive, Frankfort. Those with property interests in the area, or users of these lakes, are encouraged to participate. Final recommendations incorporating public input will be presented to the Kentucky Fish and Wildlife Commission at a future meeting for further action.

Those unable to attend public meetings may still provide comments to the Boat Dock/Shoreline Use Working Group. Written comments may be directed to "Boat Dock/Shoreline Use Public Comment" at Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources, 1 Sportsman's Lane, Frankfort, KY 40601, or by email with "Boat Dock/Shoreline Use Public Comment" in the subject line to fwboatdocks@ky.gov. Please send public comments to arrive by Friday, March 6.

Commenters should include their first and last name, county and state of residence, angler or landowner designation, and organization represented with position held in the organization, if applicable.
