Police Beat

By CT Staff

On Monday, December 26 at approximately 9:49 a.m., the Scottsville 911 center received a call from Crystal Harris regarding an assault at 222 E. Poplar Street. Harris, the caller, stated there was an active EPO between her and William Gifford.

Dispatch confirmed to police that there was an existing EPO that stipulated no act of violence/ or destruction of property between the individuals. Upon contact at 222 E. Poplar, the two parties were seen arguing in fron of the driveway in the mist of the ice and snow. Harris was heard saying, “you’re not going to hit or choke me again.”

Gifford was then heard stating that he had never struck or hit Crystal. Police made contact with Crystal Harris. Not long after, Gifford was placed under arrest. Gifford denied any type of physical altercation. Gifford was transported to the Allen County Detention Center.

On Thursday, Dec. 22 at approximately 9:20 a.m., police stopped Jasmine Ann Groves at the intersection of South Third and East Main Streets due to operating a vehicle that has no insurance as well as no registration.

While pulling over Groves, she was aware of the vehicle not having registration and no insurance. She had stated she was “Door Dashing,” in order to save money and get the vehicle properly registered and insured. Police then advised Groves that in order for a vehicle to operate on the highway, all vehicles are required by KRS to have proper insurance and registration.

Groves then stated that the vehicle was last registered in Indiana and she had planned on going back this week to get it registered. Police told Groves they understood and would not tow her vehicle but they would be giving her a citation. The officer then returned to his cruiser with Groves’ license to get her citation.

While preparing Groves’ citation it came to the officers attention that Groves’ had began to leave. Both officers on scene activated lights and sirens. Groves’ failed to stop. She then turned onto E. Main Street and continued until they had reached East Poplar Street. The officer had pulled his vehicle in front of hers while the other officer had pulled behind her.

While officers ran over to Groves, she yelled she had not done anything wrong. She had stated she thought she was free to leave and she did not understand the cause for the lights and sirens. Groves was placed under arrest and transported to the Allen County Detention Center.

On Tuesday, Dec. 27 at approximately 10:17 p.m., the Scottsville Police were dispatched to 232 North Welch Street in reference to a stabbing.

Upon arrival to the scene, a male subject had a stab wound to his right arm just below the elbow. Police confronted the female subject identified as Sarah L. Creek. Creek stated that she was trying to get away from the male subject.

While in attempt to get away, Creek had gotten into her car and the male subject had proceeded to open up the door. Creek then turned and grabbed a knife from her center console of the car and stabbed the male subject.

It was also stated by Creek that both parties had been drinking. Creek was placed under arrest and transported to the Allen County Detention Center. She was charged with assault in the fourth degree and alcohol intoxication in a public place.

Unscramble these twelve letter strings to form each into an ordinary word (ex. HAGNEC becomes CHANGE). Prepare to use only ONE word from any marked (♥) letter string as each unscrambles into more than one word (ex. ♥RATHE becomes HATER or EARTH or HEART). Fit each string's word either across or down to knot all twelve strings together.
