

Serving Scottsville and Allen County for 133 Years

A Community Newspaper - Leader in Readership and Respect Since 1890

SCOTTSVILLE, KY

NOVEMBER 07, 2024

The Citizen (1908) Allen County Times (1890) Consolidated Oct. 10, 1918

A member of the Jobe Publishing Inc. News Network

Dogs on Dumont

PHOTO | DAMON STONE

Jasmine, a Great Dane, was brought by her owners Shaun and Judy Peterson. Jasmine competed in the best dressed competition.

By Damon Stone Staff Writer

Dogs on Dumont held its ninth year on Saturday, Nov. 2, which started at 10 a.m., and allowed for dogs in the community to be recognized.

The event, which was founded and organized by Melissa Turner, was to raise funds for Special Olympics athletes.

"It's grown into what you see today," Turner said. "We're very thankful that our community shows up every year to help support Allen County Special Olympics."

Turner explained that Special Olympics athletes are not able to participate in regular sports in the school system, and by raising the funds at Dumont, they are able to travel and have their own regional competitions.

Several sponsors had come to support the event, including, the

DUMONT, Continued on page A8

Honoring WWIIVeteran

▲ PHOTO | SUBMITTED Left to right are: Commander Rick and Margaret Simpson, Shelby and John Holly, David Wilkerson, Jeff Keen, Ray Neely, Dean and Marsha Britt during the beginning steps for the veteran grave of Frank T. Kuzma. Allen County residents remembering Dr. Mark Kuzma, DMD practicing locally, is a son of Veteran Kuzma and currently resides in Barren County.

By H.D. Overholt Staff Reporter

With a little travel time to

A few weeks ago, Marsha and Dean Britt visited the site of their relatives in remembrance of family adventures and years of the past. Before leaving the area they noted a WWII veteran's grave had collapsed due to the age of the burial plot and remained with their minds the sacrifice a soldier must have gave and now mostly forgotten by his comrades.

In conversation with Halfrey

Council Hears Storm Water Drainage Issue

By H.D. Overholt Staff Reporter

Scottsville City Council meeting was called to order for business with Mayor David Burch presiding at 6 p.m. Monday, Oct. 28, 2024 in the City Council room. All council members answering roll call as present.

Meeting minutes of October 14, 2024 regular meeting were approved with no corrections or additions.

Citizens Gail Bennett and Linda Smith, residents of West Main and North Bedelia Streets respectfully, reviewed Council members concerning storm water drainage and increased mosquito

COUNCIL, Continued on page B4

Early Holiday Deadline

Due to the Thanksgiving holiday, the advertising deadline will be by noon on Wednesday, Nov. 13 and story and article deadline will be by noon on Wednesday, Nov.

The Citizen-Times office will be closed on Thursday, Nov. 28 and Friday, Nov. 29.

The Thanksgiving issue will be mailed Tuesday, Nov. 26.

Austin in Barren County, a tad north of Allen County and Barren River, lies a peaceful setting of Powell Cemetery with more than 111 souls recorded interred within the boundary. Dalton Veterans of Foreign Wars-Post 5712, (VFW) 934 Old Glasgow Road, member Jerry Biddle, Marsha

HONORING, Continued on page A2

K-9 Officer Nova Transfers

By H.D. Overholt Staff Reporter

Scottsville City Council convened in a special called meeting with one agenda item of discussion. The call to Order by Mayor David Burch formed a quorum with Shane Blankenship and Heather Gatewood absent. October 28, 2024 minutes were approved with no additions or corrections noted.

In review of the prior council meeting declaring K-9 Officer Nova as surplus property for transfer to an interested police department, the

NOVA, Continued on page A8

A PHOTO | H. D. OVERHOLT

K-9 Officer Nova proudly displays the uniform provided by Vested Interest In K9s, Inc., as she (earlier) welcomed handler Officer Adam Morgan to lead them within law enforcement duties. Officer Nova and the vest will transfer to Gainesboro, Tenn., Police Department and invites everyone to follow on Facebook or visit their great community.

DISCOVER OUR DIGITAL COPY AT www.thecitizen-times.com

Follow us online

LOCAL LICENSED SALES AGENT

to answer all your questions about MEDICARE (615) 492-3307

