120th Kentucky State Fair gears up to celebrate all 120 Commonwealth counties

The Kentucky State Fair is gearing up to celebrate a major milestone anniversary – 120 years of highlighting the best in the Commonwealth. In an utterly appropriate move, this year’s theme is 120 Years, 120 Counties. Entries are now open and being accepted for the 2024 fair, which will showcase the passion and talents of Kentuckians. The fair has 17 general exhibit departments to select from, with numerous divisions and classes within each. Some of the new classes available for entry this year include sourdough bread and windchimes. The fair will have a special entries division for individuals with special needs in the Textiles, Fine Art, and Hobbies departments. In addition, there are eight species in the Livestock department that exhibitors can enter to show.

The deadline for regular entries is July 10. However, exhibitors can submit entries through July 17, but those will incur a late entry fee. All details on fees and instructions for entries can be found in the 2024 Premium Book.

The 2024 Kentucky State Fair is Aug. 15-25 at the Kentucky Exposition Center. Tickets and concert lineup will be announced on June 5. For more information, visit www.kystatefair.org or find the fair on Facebook, X, and Instagram.

Kentucky State Police investigates two deadly shooting incidents in Russell County

The Kentucky State Police (KSP) is investigating two deadly shootings that occurred Friday evening in Russell County.

On May 3, 2024 at approximately 7:00 P.M. CDT, KSP Post 15 received a call from Pulaski County 911 requesting assistance locating a Ford F150 believed to be operated by Angela Gosser, age 56, of Russell Springs. Troopers responded to Russell County to attempt to locate the vehicle. At approximately 7:24 P.M. CDT, Russell County 911 contacted KSP Post 15 and requested investigative assistance with a deadly shooting incident that had occurred at a residence on South KY 619 in Russell County.

The preliminary investigation revealed that Angela Gosser had arrived at a residence on South KY 619 belonging to her brother, Darryl Wilson, age 58, of Jamestown. Once at the residence, Ms. Gosser armed herself with a firearm and forced entry into the residence. Upon Ms. Gosser entering the residence, there was an apparent exchange of gunfire between Ms. Gosser and Mr. Wilson, with both individuals receiving gunshot wounds. Mr. Wilson was transported to the University of Kentucky Hospital for treatment of life-threatening injuries. Ms. Gosser’s injuries were fatal and she was pronounced deceased by the Russell County Coroner.

While at the scene on South KY 619, KSP received a request for a welfare check on Angela Gosser’s sister, Jennifer Wilson, age 57, of Russell Springs. Family members of Ms. Wilson reported they had been unable to make contact with her, causing them to become concerned for her safety. KSP Troopers and Russell County Sheriff’s Deputies responded to Hammond Road in Russell County. Troopers and deputies located a Toyota Camry partially off the roadway when they arrived on Hammond Road. Upon contact with the vehicle, a lone occupant, Jennifer Wilson, was located in the driver’s seat with apparent fatal gunshot wounds to the head. The preliminary investigation revealed that before the incident at her brother’s residence on South KY 619, Ms. Gosser encountered Ms. Wilson on Hammond Road. Ms. Gosser armed herself with a firearm and fired multiple rounds into the passenger area of the vehicle, fatally striking Ms. Wilson. Ms. Wilson was pronounced deceased by the Russell County Coroner.

KSP was assisted at the scene by the Russell County Sheriff’s Office, Jamestown Police Department, Russell County EMS, and the Russell County Coroner’s Office. The investigation is ongoing by Detective James Ford.
