NOTICE OF LOCAL PUBLIC HEARING
 Notice is hereby given that the Kentucky Public Service Commission ("PSC") will hold a local public hearing beginning at 5:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on Thursday, December 5, 2024, at the Floyd County Fiscal Court, 149 S. Central Avenue, Prestonsburg, Kentucky 41653. The purpose of the local public hearing is to hear public comments on the issues in PSC Case No. 2024-00115 concerning Kentucky Power Company's application to expand its existing demand-side management program (the Targeted Energy Efficiency Program) and to approve two new demand-side management programs (the Home Energy Improvement Program and the Commercial Energy Solutions Program). Kentucky Power has proposed these new programs to help customers save money on electric bills and use less energy. Recognizing the hardship of rising energy costs across the nation and in Kentucky Power's service area, this is one of several ways Kentucky Power is trying to help customers save money.

 campaign with the support of the Elliott County Fiscal Court.
 The Elliott County Fiscal Court applied for and received a block grant through Department of Local Government to fund the construction of the new Sandy Hook Food Pantry utilizing funds set aside through the CARES Act.
 As a result of those efforts ECCCC, Elliott County Fiscal Court, and St. Claire Healthcare (now UK St. Claire) partnered together to tackle this problem. St. Claire, being the property owner of the old "Dr. Brownie Adkins" building, made significant investments by acquiring the adjacent lot to provide the additional room needed for this project and by providing the architectural design work of Josh Trent.

 UK St. Claire President and CEO Donald H. Lloyd II told the crowd gathered that UK St. Claire remains committed to improving and expanding the healthcare services provided and to the overall improvement of the health and wellbeing of the folks in this region.
 Elliott County native Rocky Adkins, Senior Advisor to Governor Andy Beshear, attended the ribbon cutting.
 Mr. Adkins reminded everyone that "Elliott County is the center of the universe" and that this much needed project would help to improve food access for the citizens of rural Elliott County. He also said this is only one of many projects he and has had the pleasure to be a part of as he continues to strive towards making sure Elliott County always gets "it's fair share".

 With the completion of this project the partnership with UK St. Claire, Elliott County Fiscal Court, and ECCCC is not over but has just begun.
 ECCCC will endeavor to operate the Sandy Hook Food Pantry and invites anyone interested in seeing the new building or becoming part of the volunteer workforce to stop by and visit with their director, Pastor Brian Flannery.
 Brian stands committed to serving those in need and to sharing Christ's love. ECCCC utilizes grant monies, when available, from various locations such as the Emergency Food and Shelter Program to purchase food, but relies heavily on donations to cover operating cost.

 ECCCC invites anyone wishing to become a partner in the ongoing operation of their organization and this project to do so by sending tax deductible donations to ECCCC, PO Box 512, Sandy Hook KY, 41171

Elliott County Tourism Report

By Judy Craig
 Hi everyone! We are another week closer to the biggest day of the year. That's right, the Christmas Jubilee will be on Dec 14. There will be vendors, music, face painting and more. We will also have a petting zoo and photo's with Santa.
 Who's going to be the lucky winner of the Deck Your Paws Photo contest? Dress your dog in the most festive Christmas outfit to win. Submit your Picture by no later than Dec. 1, 2024.
 The photo with the most votes wins a free groom from The Dog Huse Kutz, LLC- Dominated by Tara Horton. Voting ends on Dec. 13 at 3 p.m. The winner will be announced at the Christmas Jubilee on Dec 14. Please send your photo to the following address:
<https://m.me/jackie.brown.1253>
 Please see the flyer on our Facebook page for additional information.
 With everything we have planned for that day, you should be able to find something to your liking. As long as the weather holds out, we will have the perfect day.
 It's still not too early to fill up these last remaining vendor spots. We will be calling all the vendors around Dec. 8 with your spot number . If you don't hear from us by Dec. 10, PLEASE get in touch with us as soon as possible, as I do have a couple of vendors with names only.
 We can't wait to stop by and thank you for your support of Tourism.
 Thank you to Beyond Blessed Boutique and Little Sandy Lodge. They are getting into the Christmas spirit. Beyond Blessed has the biggest cotton candy and gum drops that I ever seen on Display.
 At night with the lights on, Little Sandy Lodge just looks magical.

 Who else in town is planning on getting their "Festive" on? Get those creative juices going and paint the windows in your favorite Christmas theme. Let's do something creative and festive in our little town.
 Just think how magical our town would look at night with all of the gorgeous twinkling lights all lit up. So come on, business owners. Your Elliott County Tourism Committee challenges each one of you to get in the Christmas Spirit and decorate!
 Let's see twinkly Christmas lights followed by the Christmas parade and fireworks. All this sounds like magic to me!
 Here are some events going on in our area:
 • Elliott County Extension Office will be hosting a monthly cooking class. The last remaining date is Dec 19.
 • On Nov. 30, the Christmas Market in Laurel Gorge vendor fair will be from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., just in time for those last minute gifts!
 • On Dec 7 at 1 p.m. will be the annual Dulcimer Club Christmas Concert. These musicians are so talented. I really enjoy listening to them play.
 On Dec. 7th from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. will be Grayson Hometown Holidays. There will be vendors, Festival of Trees, and Breakfast with Santa.
 • On Dec 7 will be West Liberty's Small Town Christmas.
 • Dec 6 at 6 p.m. will be the Rowan County Christmas parade.
 • On Dec. 14 at 7 p.m. will be the annual Lawrence County Christmas Parade.
 There's always something going on somewhere. So, have fun everyone!
 Please follow us on the Elliott County Tourism Facebook page or visitelliottcounty.com.
 Let's keep turning me into what WE can do for each other.
