Vanceburg Lions Club

By Bill Tom Stone

The Vanceburg Lions Club held its regular meeting on September 19, at the Methodist Church fellowship hall. President Lion Roger Brown called the meeting to order at 6:30 p.m. with Lion Bryan Wright leading in the pledge of allegiance to the United States flag and Lion Bill Tom Stone giving the prayer. The club then recessed for a meal and a time of fellowship.

President Brown called the meeting to order again after the time of fellowship. He then recognized Lion Austin Rucker who had attended the US/Canadian forum that was held in Louisville from September 5-7. Lion Rucker attended several seminars and discussed what Lions around the country are doing to promote Lionism and help their communities. He also had the honor of meeting the Lions Club International President Fabricio Oliveira. He is still sorting through his material and hopes to implement some of the activities that others are doing elsewhere here in Vanceburg.

Lion Brown then recognized Sam Holder who gave an update on the September 21 golf scramble that the club will be hosting. Lion Holder updated the club on the "E. V. Holder, Jr. Memorial Golf Scramble" and reminded everyone that a portion of the proceeds will be donated to the Kentucky Lions Eye Foundation in memory and honor of past governor Lion E. V. Holder, Jr. who served as president and director of the foundation. Lion Holder informed the group that over 20 hole sponsors had paid and that we were still looking for door prizes, but we had around 40 so far. Still looking at around 18 teams to play. He went over the responsibilities and most of the 17 members in attendance were either playing or working the event.

Lion Kenny Ruckel passed out the raffle tickets that we had voted to do at the last meeting. The drawing will be on October 18, at the halftime of the Lewis County football game. The cost is $10 a ticket.

Lion Sam Holder informed the club that Landon Bentley will speak to the group at the first meeting in October on behalf of Warrior Ridge. We agreed that we wanted to keep supporting this cause and would like to know a little more about their mission.

Lion Mike Edington and David Lucas reminded everyone that if they knew of anyone who had glasses to give to the club, Lion Austin Rucker would be collecting them.

President Brown then reformed the club that Landon Bentley will speak to the group at the first meeting in October on behalf of Warrior Ridge. We agreed that we wanted to keep supporting this cause and would like to know a little more about their mission.
