Sara Richardson

Sara (Sallye) Guffey Richardson was born April 25, 1939, in Warrensburg, Ill, to the late Grady and Ora (Hoover) Guffey. She was united in marriage to Daniel Richardson on August 27, 1960. From the union, three children were born Vicki (Dale) Bridgeford, Susan (Allan) Buck, William (Melissa) Richardson, along with three grandchildren Molly (Mark) Huffaker, Kristin Buck (and companion Jon Schuletheis), Kelly (Art) Jaramillo and two great grandchildren Luke Huffaker and Korlyn Huffaker. She was a sibling to five brothers, Otis (deceased), Charlie, Leonard, Roger, and Jack Guffey; and one sister, Judy (Guffey) Morrow.

Sallye accepted Christ as her Savior in her early teen years and was a member of Bethesda Methodist Church. In 1963, Sallye and her husband, Daniel, were baptized and became members of Faith Baptist Church; she was a faithful member there for the remainder of her life. She attended Somerset Baptist Institute and Cumberland Baptist Institute to expand her knowledge of and relationship with the Lord. She never wavered from the call and wholeheartedly served her Lord and her church.

She was a Godly woman who raised her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren in the ways of the Lord and was a great example to all who knew her. During Sallye's years of service to the Lord, she taught Sunday and Bible school, sang in the choir, and was even the janitor occasionally.

Sallye had many interests. She learned to garden as a child, growing flowers in tin cans. She also became an expert seamstress and crafter. As her children and grandchildren grew up, she delighted in making them new clothes, including Easter dresses and a little boy's suit. She had the eye of an artist and the heart of a poet. She had a gift for creating arts and crafts and effortlessly made beautiful and intricate things.

She was an unapologetic lover of nature. She nurtured and cared for all of God's creation. When she was 18, she nursed a whitetail deer with a broken leg back to health; "Babe" would live around the family home for three years before returning to the wild. During her life, she had numerous pets of all descriptions. Today, Winston, a jet-black pug, has the run of the house. She loved all creatures, great and small.

Sara has finished the course. She has kept the faith, and the victory is hers. She waits now with great anticipation for those she loves.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself: that where I am there ye may be also. John 14:3

COUNTY from FRONT

nately a win for the community." Gehring said the industrial park will be used to locate industries and create jobs within the community. Gehring also announced that the county received Cyber-security grant funds through the Kentucky Office of Homeland Security to upgrade technology in all county offices.

The grant totals $255,800 and requires no match from the county, so the project is paid entirely through the grant.

OTHER BUSINESS

- The court went into executive session pursuant to KRS 61.810 (1) (c), but no comment was given as to what it pertained to. The KRS statute states: (1) All meetings of a quorum of the members of any public agency at which any public business is discussed or at which any action is taken by the agency, shall be public meetings, open to the public at all times, except for the following: (c) Discussions of proposed or pending litigation against or on behalf of the public agency."

- Road adoptions include 1000' of Denny Cemetery Road off Tuggle Hollow in District 2; 700' of Rains Cemetery Road off Jennings Hollow in District 2; 390' of Sierra Drive near Bell Subdivision in District 4; and 500' of Tope Circle off Richards Road in District 4.

- Road removals include 3,659' of CR 439 Tom Denney Road in District 2; and 150' of Spring Branch Road off Ky Hwy 196 in District 4.

- The court voted to apply for the House Bill 1 Jail Arraignment Equipment Grant which will pay for up-grading software.

- Personnel action included Delilah Mansfield moving from tax administrator to Human Resources; Shelby Mitchell as tax administrator; David Rednour as the Solid Waste White Goods Coordinator replacing Tim Mas-sengale who retired; and Chris Pyles as a CDL driver for the road department.

- The court voted to do the surplus property auction as sealed bids in April. Magistrates Dobbs and Jeffrey Dishman voted yes, while Magistrates Ronnie Turner and Wade Dick voted no. Gehring acted as the tie breaker and voted yes, so the motion passed. A date for the sealed bid auction will be announced at a later time.

- The court voted to pay for D.A.R.E. program training for local school resource officers at $600 per person, and it will be paid for with the opioid abatement money. Present at the meeting were Wayne County Judge Executive Scott Gehring and magistrates Ronnie Turner (District 1), Jeffrey Dishman (District 2), Wade Dick (District 3), and Johnathan Dobbs (District 4). The fiscal court meets on the 2nd Thursday of each month at 6 pm in the fiscal court chambers.

Something to think about...When providing first class funeral service, the only difference in those services, is the destination of the body, Cemetery or Creamatory. We just wonder why the folks advertising "Cheap" cremations are not providing the same price for their burial families...are they penalizing the families choosing earth burial or having them subsidize the price for their bargains...
