Claims - Following were approved: General Fund Interfund Cash Transfer; General Fund Budget Transfer; General Fund Vendor Claims; Road Fund Vendor Claims; Jail Fund Vendor Claims: Dispatch 911 Fund Vendor Claims; Federal Fund Vendor Claims.

Other Business:

*Judge Teegarden stated that construction has started at the senior center/commodities bldg. project, and she has Animal Shelter Ex- received a change order. She was made aware that the contractor, Perkins Carmack, ran into a concealed concrete slab under the porch slab. The second slab conflicts with new construction and needs to be removed. The architect looked at everything and sent a proposal. The change order is for $3,482.95. If they can do for less, they will but this is the cost they anticipate. This will be outside the grant funding therefore, this will have to come from the general fund.

Motion to approve Brumley. Kathy Free is the change order from Perkins Carmack was 25-01: made by John Scott, second by Debbie Mayfield. Vote unanimous.

DKC Maintenance of the Tenco Workforce Agreement $5,500 - In going back through contracts Judge Teegarden found that the DKC radio maintenance contract is due to expire March 1. She called DKC radio and asked them to come up with a contract for March 2025-2026. She also asked for a contract on maintaining and testing all the generators in the county to make sure they are always ready and working.

Motion for approval made by Craig Miller, second by Heather Brumley. Vote unanimous.

DKC Maintenance Contract for generators - Motion for approval made by John Scott, second by Sandy Ruf. Vote unanimous.

*Judge Teegarden advised that the county attorney asked that she hand out financial disclosures that need to be filled out and turned into the Circuit Clerk's office (all elected officials). *Lois, County Treasurer, addressed the court with an update. She was able to successfully reconcile the bank statements with the software for the month of January, was very pleased with the outcome of the change in payroll. She also stated she has had several employees address her about direct deposit. She has put an anonymous survey in with each county employee paycheck to see what the majority would like to do. There is not an option to do both so either everyone switches or stays.

The March meeting was changed from March 26 to Fri., March 21 at 10:00. This will be a special meeting due to Magistrates training conference and not having a quorum. The March 12 meeting is still as sched-

Adjourn - Motion to adjourn made by Kevin Jarrells, second by Sandy Ruf. Vote unanimous.
