chili, vegetarian/vegan chili, spicy chili, unique chili, and people’s choice.

Entering is simple. Register by January 20, either online or at the main office at the high school. Prepare one gallon of your best chili, and bring you chili to the high school on Friday, Jan. 24. The entry fee is $25 per entry with all proceeds earmarked for the high school Beta Club.

Rules and guidelines for the competition are as follows:

- All ingredients must be listed on a provided ingredient card to accommodate allergies.

- No pre-cooked or store-bought chili allowed; chili must be made from scratch.

- Spices and seasoning blends are permitted but must be labeled.

- Chili must be cooked and prepared before the event; warming stations will be provided.

- Each participant must prepare at least one gallon of chili.

- Participants must arrive at least two hours before the event starts for setup.

- Each booth will be assigned a number to ensure anonymity for judging.

- Participants will serve small tasting portions (e.g., 2-3 oz cups) for judges and attendees.

- All participants must maintain cleanliness at their station.

- One entry per category per participant.

- Participants must have someone remain at his or her booth for the duration of the event.

A mix of local community leaders, school staff, and students will conduct judging. The event will have anonymous tasting to ensure impartial judging. The criteria for judging will be taste (40 percent), aroma (20 percent), texture/consistency (20 percent), presentation (10 percent) and creativity (10 percent).

The competition will start at 4 p.m. and run throughout the games. Winners will be announced toward the end of the boys game.

Trophies for first, second, and third place in each category plus a $50 gift card for first, and a $25 gift card for second.

The People’s Choice Award winner receives a trophy and a feature on AC-SHS website/social media.

Love chili but do not want to cook? You can participate as well in the tasting portion of the event. Tasting Tickets will be $1 for each tasting. Attendees can also vote and help decide the People’s Choice Award.

Anyone in the community is welcome to enter. To sign up online, go to the Online Entry Form. For more information, contact, AC-SHS Beta Club sponsor, Debra Rigsby at debra.rigsby@allen.kyschools.us.

27, of Pine Bush, N.Y., standing on the shoulder of New Gallatin Road and Veterans Memorial Highway. Mann was attempting to wave traffic down. At the same time, dispatch was receiving calls from Mann on the emergency 911 line.

Deputies made contact with Mann. He was unable to follow simple directions and appeared to be intoxicated based on his irrational behavior.

Mann denied being on any prescription medications but stated he consumed marijuana. He denied consuming any other illegal narcotics.

Mann was taken into custody and charged with public intoxication of a controlled substance (excludes alcohol). He was transported to the Allen County Detention Center.

- On Thursday, Jan. 16 at 6:41 p.m., deputies responded to 2374 Fleet Road regarding a female experiencing a manic episode in the yard, waving a knife and claiming to see people who weren’t there.

Upon arrival, they identified the woman through her mother as Annika M. Miller, 24, of Scottsville. Miller fled into a nearby field where she was eventually located approximate a half mile from the residence. She was speaking erratically and claiming she was scared of the police, which was her reason for running. She also mentioned she had been drinking earlier in the day and had taken prescription medication that caused her to hallucinate. Additionally, her pupils weren’t reactive to light.

Her mother stated Miller had been seeing someone named Flint Linch and had been acting very strange since returning home around noon. The mother expressed her belief that Miller had an addiction problem and was actively using methamphetamine with Linch.

Based on the investigation, it was determined that Miller presented a danger to herself and others, leading her to be taken into custody. She was charged with public intoxication of a controlled substance (excluding alcohol).

- The following were picked up on active warrants: Refugio Salcido, failure to appear; Mariah N. Escoto, failure to appear; Dalton Eubank, failure to appear (4); Jakeup Disman, probation violation and failure to appear; Jeffery W. Baker, third-degree burglary; Dillon P. Freeland, third-degree burglary (complicity); Dalton J. Eubank, third-degree burglary; Katelynn G. Spangler, first-degree swanton endangerment, operating a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol and false report of an incident to law enforcement; Charrick M. Berry, failure to appear (3); Richard T. Carver, failure to appear.
