I don't know how many times we've watched it, but when "The Ten Commandments" come on, we watch it again. Usually it's on the Saturday night before Easter, but it came on last Saturday night. I know they added some effects to it that probably didn't happen, but it follows along pretty well with the Bible.

Don't forget: Der Dutch Bakery, 296 Perrytown Road, is scheduled to open on April 19.

Whispering Pines on Old Franklin Road will open for the season on April 25.

Congratulations to Liberty Falica on being one of 56 Kentucky high school students out of 1,350 applicants accepted into the Visual Arts portion of this summer's Governor's School of Arts. My mother-in-law, Frankie Lambert, enjoyed giving Liberty art lessons when she was a little girl. I know Frankie would be really proud of Liberty.

The Trammel Creek Homemakers are still taking orders for hanging baskets of wave petunias, vinca, Boston ferns and baskets and bowls of succulents. Cash or checks are accepted as payment. Contact any homemaker to place your order before April 20. All florals are $20 each and will be delivered before Mother's Day. Proceeds go toward supporting our community.

Scottsville Loves has a project called The Hands and Feet of Jesus Food Mission. They are selling tickets on a Blackstone Grill, one dollar each or six for five dollars. The grill will be given away on First Friday on the Square on May 2. You don't have to be present to win. The grill is currently on display at The Heart of Scottsville and you can buy tickets there. All the funds raised will go toward the mission of Scottsville Loves to feed people when devastation hits.

Barbara McClard and Rita Hale Wilburn went on a bus trip recently with the Macon County Retired Teachers to see "Singin' In the Rain" in Clarksville, Ind.

Our granddaughter, Hannah, and her SKEVA 16 Blue team were in Franklin, Tenn., over the weekend for the AAU Mid-South Challenge. We went on Saturday to watch the pool play and they won all three of their games. We didn't get to go back on Sunday, but thankfully one of the fathers streamed it on Facebook and we were able to watch most of their four games, including the championship game, which SKEVA won. Woo-hoo! Champions!

I won't name names, but a certain neighbor of ours recently had some unusual driving hazards the other day. Not far from his house he almost ran over eight mules and two horses in the road. A couple of miles later a herd of 20+ deer were crossing the road in front of him. A few hills and curves later he almost ran over Marty Brown driving his lawn mower pulling a trailer. When he finally got to where he was going, he found a lady sitting on her couch, in the house, feeding raisins to a chicken. Oh yeah, he also had to wait for the UPS driver to move along because he was blocking the road. Do you think he made up any of that tale?

Get well wishes go to Mary Steele after her recent surgery.

Our thoughts and prayers are also with Greg and Teresa Tabor.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Robert Brady for their loss.
