the shop. Over time, Tom forgave him and their friendship was restored. Tom later shared, "Forgiveness didn't erase the past, but it gave me peace. I felt God's grace in that moment." God's relentless love chased Tom, enabling him to forgive.

The Bible shows this transformative power in the life of Joseph, who forgave his brothers after they sold him into slavery (Genesis 37-50). Years later, as a leader in Egypt, Joseph faced his brothers, who feared retribution. Instead, he wept and embraced them, saying, "You meant evil against me, but God meant it for good" (Genesis 50:20). Joseph's forgiveness, rooted in God's redemptive plan, not only restored his family but also saved nations. Like Joseph, we can trust God to work through our forgiveness even when it feels unnatural.

Who do you need to forgive? Pray for God to create opportunities to forgive, guiding you to the right moment, words and attitude to bring healing. Have you accepted God's forgiveness and saving grace? If you haven't yet, pray to receive Jesus Christ as your Savior. This faith will transform your life. Then, pray the prayer from the first question to forgive others.

I close with this prayer of forgiveness to help you get started. Dear Heavenly Father,

I come before You, seeking Your guidance and strength. Reveal any unforgiveness in my heart. Reveal the sins I've committed, the wrongs done to me, or the guilt I hold against myself. Help me to release these burdens through Your love and the saving power of Jesus Christ. Grant me the courage to forgive others as You have forgiven me. Fill me with Your peace and joy. In Jesus' name, Amen. To God be the glory! (To learn more about Al Earley or read previous articles, see www.lagrangepres.org.
