Summer Splash Party participants sought

A Summer Splash Party will be held at the Clinton County Extension Office on July 24, from 11:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.

Activities will include free games, water activities and fun events.

You are welcome to set up a table and provide some type of game or physical activity for participants. To determine if we can supply tables and chairs, please let us know if you plan to participate by July 21.

We do not have canopy access for everyone so please know you will be responsible for your own “shade”.

A follow-up email will be sent with final details on July 22. Also feel free to share the event from our Facebook page.
