the Kentucky State East District Veteran Representative and holds a national position as a representative on the Elks National Veterans Service Commission, a post he has held for the past several years.

ANGELS

all of heaven celebrated. At the resurrection of Jesus, all of heaven stood by, speechless. Not even the angels had ever seen God die and rise, never to die again. Neither the archangel Michael, nor the chief messenger Gabriel, nor even the fallen Lucifer had ever witnessed Jesus conquer death, until that day. Death had always reigned supreme. After all, if you killed your enemy, you won the battle. That is why Satan celebrated on Friday. But on Sunday morning, there he stood, hiding behind the tree. Lucifer peered around the low hanging branches. In Eden, he spoke to the woman convincing her to disregard God. But on that first Easter, Lucifer had absolutely nothing to say to these women. Even he was speechless.

Kinney’s commitment to veterans earned him the 2023 National Volunteer of the Year for the Veterans Administration. He beat out individuals representing the VFW, American Legion and many other service organizations. Most of his hours are accrued as the volunteer office manager for Lexington’s VA, where he helps out two days a week. The Elks have a long tradition of serving veterans, and the Cynthiana Elks are no different. In addition to donating funds for supplies, clothing and food for veterans at the Lexington VA and the Fisher House, the lodge also hosts a large fish fry for veterans in November.

that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father (Philippians 2:9-11). Without pomp. Without fanfare. In the quiet of the dawn, that one angel delivered the single most important sentence since God had said, “Let there be light” (Genesis 1:3). He spoke clearly, “He is risen.”

reigns as King over all peoples, nations, and languages. His dominion is an everlasting dominion. His kingdom will not be destroyed throughout all of eternity. Jesus has overcome death. He has been given all authority in Heaven and on earth (Matthew 28:18). With the resurrection, Jesus has been exalted and given the name above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee will bow of those who are in heaven, and on earth, and under the earth, and every tongue will confess
