take it to another level mentally and physically.”

Paolo Banchemo led the Magic with 32 points and nine rebounds. Franz Wagner scored 25 points.

“They came out of the locker room and went on a run. We had trouble coming back from that,” Banchemo said.

Game 3 is Friday night at Orlando.

Tatum had not missed a playoff game in his eight seasons with Boston. He injured his wrist in Game 1 after landing awkwardly following a flagrant foul by Kentavious Caldwell-Pope.

Clad in street clothes, he joined his team prior to tipoff and sat at the end of the bench.

Mazzulla characterized Tatum’s status as day to day.

Caldwell-Pope was booed nearly every time he touched the ball in the aftermath of his Game 1 foul on Tatum, which the Celtics’ Al Horford later characterized as excessive.

Tempers flared between Caldwell-Pope and Horford when their feet got tangled up and sent both crashing to the floor at the 4:42 mark of the second quarter.

Brown then exchanged words with Caldwell-Pope. Referees reviewed the the play and determined it was a common tripping foul on Caldwell-Pope.

Then, late in the third quarter, Porzingis went to the locker room with a gash to his forehead but returned in time to shoot a pair of free throws after taking an elbow from Goga Bitadze. The play was reviewed and upgraded to a flagrant foul on Bitadze.

During the review, Porzingis emerged to a loud ovation, with dried blood streaking down the back of his head and a bandage on the center of his forehead. He re-entered the game and connected on one of his two free throws before exiting again.

Cleveland Cavaliers guard Donovan Mitchell gestures during Game 2 of an NBA first-round playoff series against the Miami Heat on Wednesday in Cleveland.

midway through the period and came back into the game with 7:15 left. He said he got five stitches to close the wound.

Cavaliers 121, Heat 112

CLEVELAND — Donovan Mitchell scored 30 points, including 17 in the fourth quarter, and Cleveland held on for a victory over Miami Heat on Wednesday night for a 2-0 lead in their Eastern Conference first-round series.

The top-seeded Cavaliers set an NBA playoff record with 11 3-pointers in the second quarter and had 22 for the game. However, Cleveland had to hold off a second-half charge by Miami.

Tyler Herro scored 33 points for Miami, which hosts Game 3 on Saturday afternoon.

The Cavaliers had a 19-point lead with under 3 minutes remaining in the third quarter before the Heat made their run to get within 105-103 lead with 3:11 left.

Mitchell, who also had six rebounds and six assists, then put the game on his shoulders. He scored Cleveland’s next eight points, including a pair of 3-pointers, during an 8-2 run to give them some breathing room.

Evan Mobley had 20 points and Darius Garland 19 for the Cavaliers.

Rockets 109, Warriors 94

HOUSTON — Jalen Green made eight 3-pointers and scored 38 points to lead Houston to a win over Golden State in a testy matchup to even the first-round Western Conference series at one game apiece.

The seventh-seeded Warriors never led and played short-handed for most of the night after Jimmy Butler left with a pelvis contusion after a hard fall on a foul late in the first quarter.

Green, the No. 2 pick in the 2021 draft, rebounded from a flop in his playoff debut, when he scored just seven points on 3-of-15 shooting, with a dominant Game 2.

His eight 3-pointers were two more than the No. 2-seeded Rockets made on 6-of-29 shooting in a 95-85 Game 1 loss.

Alperen Sengun had 17 points and 16 rebounds for the Rockets. Tari Eason had 14 points off the bench.

WKU MEN’S GOLF
Tops finish eighth in
CUSA Championships

By the Daily News

Western Kentucky’s men’s golf team concluded its 2024-25 season on Wednesday with an eighth-place finish (8-over par 872) at the 2025 Conference USA Championships in Texarkana, Arkansas.

WKU totaled a 3-under 573 over the final 36 holes, which was sixth-best amongst the nine-team field.

Individually, WKU’s Nic Hofman finished tied for ninth with a 2-under 214. Riley Grindstaff, who played the last two rounds as a substitute, was also 2-under over the final 36 holes.

said. “Going into a new city, they showed me around. They showed me a little bit of campus. I met a lot of the players. They made me feel comfortable there.”

Pointer had 33 total tackles, including a sack, as part of a BG defense that was a big factor in the repeat title.

Sweeney and Pointer’s signing on Wednesday made it eight football players who have signed to play college football since January. Pointer said he is excited to be part of that group.

“It feels really good to start a new career, a new chapter,” Pointer said. “We worked hard all year and it feels good to have the opportunity to make it to the next level.”

Huff and Wiggins will remain classmates at Lindsey Wilson.

Wiggins was dominant in goal for the region champion Purples, allowing five total goals in 20 games. He recorded 43 saves and finished with 10 shutouts.

Huff, who also ran cross country and track at Bowling Green, said he knew bowling collegiately was possible after competing in the Junior Gold Championships in Detroit last summer.

“I finished about 750th out of probably 2,000 people,” Huff said. “It was a struggle to get there, but genuinely it really helped me out a lot. It helped me realize where my competition was and who I needed to beat to get to the next level.”
