The Fulton County High School Pilots returned to the baseball diamond April 17, hosting the Gleason Bulldogs.

The visitors struck first, scoring one run in the top of the first inning.

The Pilots would tie things up in the bottom of the first inning, with a single by Austin Todd, and then three consecutive walks later in the inning would allow him to cross home plate to put the Pilots on the scoreboard.

Both teams would remain scoreless in the second and third innings, before the Bulldogs broke the game open in the top of the fourth inning, scoring three runs to take a 4-1 lead.

The visitors' defense would then hold the Pilots' offense scoreless for the final four innings.

JC Parker was the starting pitcher for the Pilots, pitching six and two-thirds innings, surrendering four runs on six hits, striking out seven and walking four.

Parker also went 2-for-3 at the plate, including a double, while Austin Todd and Maddox Amberg each had one single. Goodson had one RBI.

The Pilots recorded seven walks on the evening, as Goodson and Kimmons each had two, and Parker, Hunter Stonecipher and Amberg each had one walk.
