Cincinnati Playhouse Summer Camps & Performance Academies now on sale

Enrollment is now open for eight weeks of theatrical fun at Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park's summer theatre camps and performance academies for campers entering 1st through 12th grades, including loads of performance options with themes ranging from beloved musicals and films to popular books and games, including Wicked, Moana, Beetlejuice, The Lion King, Percy Jackson and Minecraft.

Camps take place at the Playhouse's Mainstage Theatre Complex in Mt. Adams, the Mason Community Center and the Ignite Institute in Erlanger in June and July.

Guided by camp staff, campers learn performance techniques including musical theatre, stage combat, writing, acting, rehearsal and performance — while at the same time gaining confidence and exploring their individuality.

One-week theatre camps for campers entering Grades 1-10

Learn the fundamentals of creating theatre with an informal Shareformance at the end of the week. Each week focuses on a unique theme: Disney's Descendants, Sonic the Hedgehog, Minecraft, Moana and Percy Jackson.

One-week performance showcases for campers entering Grades 6-12

Campers explore theatrical skills with an emphasis on performance and storytelling techniques and a Showcase at the end of the week. Showcase themes: Wicked, Hadestown and stage combat.

Two- and three-week Performance Academies for campers entering Grades 1-12

Campers work together to produce a single play or musical from start to finish, while focusing on theatrical skills and rehearsing daily. Productions: Disney's The Lion King KIDS and Frozen KIDS for younger campers and Beetlejuice JR and Aliens vs. Cheerleaders and for teens and teens.

"The campers grow every single week, and we see it. A camper who comes in on the first day of a five-day camp is not the same camper who leaves on Friday," says Ariana Moses, the Playhouse's Education Director. "They've made friendships, they've formed a community, they've learned new skills, and they've put together something to show their family and friends."

This year's programming includes:

Summer Camp offers The Launch Pad Accessibility Program, offering opportunities for campers who have developmental disabilities, neurodivergence and sensory challenges to participate in camps and have their unique needs met. Camp staff are trained to meet specific needs and accommodations, and a family coordinator works with parents and caregivers to ensure a comfortable experience for their camper.

Enrollment is now open with early bird pricing through Feb. 28 for the Playhouse and Ignite Institute locations. Financial scholarships are available for campers who demonstrate need, and Before Care and After Care options are available at all locations.
