responsible for my success in recent seasons.”

She has three region runner-up finishes in her event and a region championship in outdoor track and field, and a runner-up placing in indoor state.

“She has been a resilient and dependable component of Grayson County track and field for seven years,” said her coach and father, Matt Hayes. “I do not have words to express the gratitude and blessing she has been to coach.”

She said one of the most rewarding aspects of her career has been learning how to quickly bounce back from adversity.

Amelia Hayes said she doesn't plan to compete in college.

“Learning how to overcome challenges and make adjustments on the fly,” she said. “Not everything always goes perfect, and vault is a perfect example of that. Any time you vault, the day will end in failure, so that lesson definitely pays off the most.”
