

Sept.

From page 8A

Green County Fiscal Court, in a special called meetings September 15, approved a $50,000 loan to the Green County Ambulance District.

The Commissioner of the Kentucky Department of Education, Dr. Robbie Fletcher, recently paid a visit to Green County Schools, spending the day meeting with district leaders, state legislators, and touring each school in the district.

Lady Dragons win the 18th District Golf Tournament. Brenley Jewell led the Lady Dragon Golf Team, shooting a 92 for 18 holes during the Heartland Athletic Conference Golf Tournament September 16.

Dragon golfers finished runner-up in the 18th District Tournament. Drew Squires was named First Team All-Conference with a season average score of 37.3 in conference play.

The Green County High School Marching Dragons won first place during Class 1A preliminary competition at the Lincoln Invitational September 13 at LaRue County High School. They also earned Best Percussion in Class 1A prelims and in the finals were fifth overall out of eight bands.

The Green County Varsity Dragons and Lady Dragons dominated the Cow Days Cross Country Invitational, securing wins on Senior Night, September 19.

October

The Battle at Bluff Boom, a mountain bike race for middle and high school students, took place in Greensburg. Bluff Boom Trails is located just off Commerce Drive and brings a potential for significant economic impact on Green County and the surrounding area.

Greensburg City Councilman Mark Judd was presented the Master of City Governance Award by Kentucky League of Cities President, J. D. Cheney, left, September 26, during the 2025 KLC Annual Conference at the Owensboro Convention Center.

Greensburg Police Department's Sgt. Tyler Stevens recently graduated from the Academy of Police Supervision.

The Green County Sheriff's Office and the Green County Coroner's Office investigated a motorecy-

Second grade students Kennedy Ware and Katey Curry teach Commissioner of the Kentucky Dept. of Education Dr. Robbie Fletcher about native bats in Kentucky.

cle accident October 5 on Hwy 565 Ebenezer Road in Green County. The driver, Derrick Coyle, was airlifted to a Louisville hospital and a passenger, Hazel Rakes, was transported to Jane Todd Crawford Hospital. Rakes succumbed to her injuries.

Drivers begin adjusting to the roundabout that is being built at the busy 61/68 intersection just north of downtown Greensburg.

NAPA NHRA driver Ron Capps was at Cain Auto Supply Tool Show and Open House October 2, hosted by Adam and Krystal Cain. A large crowd turned out for the Capps meet and greet. His car also drew lots of attention.

Green County varsity runners competed in the 27th annual Jesse Owens Cross Country Classic held October 4, at the Oakville Indian Mounds Park in Oakville, Alabama.

The Lady Dragon Soccer Team won the 18th District championship. They beat Marion County 4-1 in the championship after defeating LaRue County 4-1 in the semi-finals—an eight-game winning streak for the Dragons.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency, of the Department of Homeland Security, has recently awarded an Assistance to Firefighters Grant to the Grab Volunteer Fire Department in the amount of $55,428.57.

Area fire departments were recognized in the special Fire Prevention Week section.

Stan Curry and his nephew, Steve Shaw, recently returned from a trip that many people would call the trip of a lifetime. Together, they tackled Mt. Kilimanjaro, the world's highest free-standing mountain and the highest peak in Africa at 19,341 feet above sea level.

Senate President Pro Tempore David Givens, R-Greensburg, was recognized by the Kentucky Community and Technical College System (KCTCS) with the KCTCS Champions Award.

There was a total of 55 entries in the 1st Annual Show-N-The-Park Shop with a Sheriff Benefit Car Show held at American Legion

Park Saturday, October 18.

Green County Primary School's Fall Festival was a huge success. Candidates raised more than $17,700. After the money from the food sales and auctions were added, the total amount raised was $20,396.15. The money will be used to purchase school supplies for students and to help with other student-related expenses.

October is dedicated to Breast Cancer Awareness.

Because of the government shutdown, a benefit that helps more than 600,000 Kentucky families put food on the table is set to run out Saturday, Nov. 1. The U.S. Department of Agriculture website says, "At this time, there will be no benefits issued November 01."

U.S. Congressman Brett Guthrie spent time in Green County, visiting local businesses as well as the hospital while taking time to check in with constituents in the county.

The Greensburg Arts Council hosted an Art Show at the Old Depot.

A large crowd attended the Exie Volunteer Fire Department supper and auction October 25. The fire department's fundraiser brought in approximately $12,500.

The Community Impact Breakfast for Kosair for Kids was held October 23. Over the past five years, Kosair for Kids granted $125,000 to five non-profits in the Campbellsville area. This year the event raised over $30,000.

The Green County High School Volleyball Dragons won the 18th District Tournament. The Dragons have won their district tournament 20 of the last 22 seasons.

The Green County Girls' and Boys' Varsity Cross Country teams finished runner-up at the KHSAA Class 1A Region 2 Championships in Bardstown. They will compete Nov. 1 in the KHSAA Class 1A State Championship.

November

Green County Fiscal Court, in a special called meeting Oct. 28 approved by the roll call vote of 3-2, the First Reading of Ordinance No. 23-05, establishing licensing requirements for solar energy system installations in Green County.

Green County Band students present Fall Concert.

The Green County Intermediate School Beta Club advanced to the National Beta Convention after an outstanding performance at the Leadership Summit in Bowling Green. The club earned top honors in several categories, including All the World is a Stage, Being Better Betas, Beta Blitz, Collaboration Connection,

The Grand Marshal of the 2025 Cow Days Parade was the Green County Dragons Indoor State Track and Field Champions.

Head Coach Colt Phelps talked to his team following the Dragons' big win over Russell County.

and Project Proposal.

Green County Historical Society member Tom Akin gave a presentation about the history of Green County's Montgomery Mill to an attentive audience at the historic Old Courthouse Oct. 30.

Greensburg Rotary Club members, along with a number of volunteers, participated in the annual Rotary Christmas Radio Auction November 9 at Forcht Bank. Bids on 111 donated items as well as monetary donations, including in memory of someone, were received totaling approximately $7,250 for the 2025 Angel Tree Program.

A large crowd attended the annual Extension Homemakers Holiday Bazaar at the Green County Cooperative Extension Service November 8.

The Green County High School Marching Dragon Band competed in the MSBA Class A Championships Nov. 8 at Simon Kenton High School in Independence. The band finished seventh overall in the prelims and was one of ten bands to advance to the finals, placing sixth overall.

Green County Primary School hosted Thanksgiving Family Night. Families enjoyed a trip through the school to see art masterpieces made by the students.

Veterans from Green County gathered at Veterans Day Assembly at Green County High School.

Greensburg Baptist Church held its annual Operation Christmas Child Shoebox packing party Nov. 12, to fill Operation Christmas Child shoeboxes, which is a project of Samaritan's Purse, an international relief organization. Approximately 900 shoeboxes were filled with various items.

Green County Primary and Intermediate Schools Cram the Cruisers for the holidays.

Chief Gary Conrad, of the Grab Volunteer Fire Department, was the guest speaker at the Greensburg Rotary Club November 18. He talked about current projects pertaining to the fire department, namely, the purchase of a tanker truck, construction of a new addition to the existing structure, and from a grant, the purchase of new safety equipment.

The Greensburg/Green County High School Athletic Hall of Fame Committee recently selected the members of the Class of 2026. They include: Donovan Burton, Kasey Estes Dunaway, Wayne Edwards, Cheslee Elkins, Anthony Farrior, Mike Griffiths, John Henderson, Evan Jaggers, Sonya Wilcoxson Kessler, Ronnie Mitchell, and the 1955 GHS Baseball Team.

December

After being vacant for many months, the former Pierce Elementary School will open as an addiction recovery center.

Dragon Madness as held at GCHS, introducing basketball teams and giving preview performances.

Green County Fiscal Court voted to authorize County Judge-Executive John Frank to execute all documents and approve any expenditures regarding the Green County Traffic Garden Project through the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet.

Green County has been awarded an $856,790 CCBIP Grant to reconstruct the Liletown Bridge, which connects traffic from US Highway 68 in southern Green County to KY Highway 218 near Pierce.

Greensburg's new round-about is decked out for Christmas with a tree and decor.

City Chief Gary Buckner with the 2025 Greensburg/Green County Firefighter of the Year Award.

Greensburg's Christmas opening was an all-day event Dec. 5.

Jane Todd Crawford Day was celebrated Dec. 13 with the unveiling of the new statue at the Jane Todd Crawford Hospital entrance.

Greater Louisville Inc. (GLI) has named Sen. David Givens, R-Greensburg, one of its 2025 Most Valued Policymakers.

6th & 7th Grade Basketball Dragons win Conference.

Winners announced in Greensburg Rotary Club Christmas Lighting Contest.

Christmas cheer is spread through school plays and programs.

The South-Central KY Rotary Club's annual "Adopt a Grandparent Program" is underway. All 107 residents have been adopted.

Youtube's Miss Rachel (Hannah Lovett) pushes a beautiful bunny rabbit (Faith Lovett) around the booths at the downtown Halloween festival.

PUBLIC HEARING

Please be advised that the Greensburg Planning & Zoning Board will conduct a Public Hearing to be held in the Council Chambers of City Hall, Thursday, January 8th, 2026 at 4:30 pm CT. The Greensburg Planning and Zoning Board has received a variance request for a 50 ft. frontage variance for property located on Shady Lane (property recorded in the Green County Clerk's Office in Deed Book 271 PG 157, Plat Cabinet 3 Slide 237). The Public Hearing is for remarks on the proposed variance request for a 50 ft. frontage. This property is currently zoned Commercial District/Residential 3 (High Density Residential), and is located within the incorporated boundaries of the City of Greensburg. The site layout plan, outlining the property and proposed variances will be available for review at City Hall on the above date.

PUBLIC HEARING

Please be advised that the Greensburg Planning & Zoning Board will conduct a Public Hearing to be held in the Council Chambers of City Hall, Thursday, January 8th, 2026 at 4:30 pm CT. The Greensburg Planning and Zoning Board has received a request to reclassify zoning parcel for property located on Shady Lane (property recorded in the Green County Clerk's Office in Deed Book 271 PG 157, Plat Cabinet 3 Slide 237), from Commercial District/Residential 3 (High Density Residential) to R-2 (Low-Moderate Density Residential). The Public Hearing is for remarks concerning the zoning reclassification. This property is currently zoned C-1/R3 (Commercial District & Residential), and is located within the incorporated boundaries of the City of Greensburg. The Zoning Map; outlining the proposed amendment will be available for review on the above date.