Emergency Management Director Adam Bennett, and for The Herald-News, PJ Martin.

Judge Wilson declared a quorum present, and the agenda was approved after motions by Bragg and Crain.

Judge Wilson moved down the agenda, "Next approval of the calendar year (CY 25) Metcalfe County Sheriff's Budget."

Office Manager Lynn Lunz explained,

"These are just amendments. I think we talked about those the other day, a little bit. We went over a little bit on our vehicle maintenance and different things. We were able to increase, decrease others, so that bottom line budget didn't change. Just move some money around."

After motions by Crain and Bragg, the amendment was approved.

The November

financial statement was brought back from the last meeting, and Edwards explained, "This is the same thing for the last meeting, except the ambulance fund is balanced."

The statement was approved after motions by Bragg and Hawkins.

"Next was the approval of the Metcalfe County Nursing Home Corporation's Certified Statement of Resolution," said

Judge Wilson.

After a short discussion, the motions were made by Miller and Bragg and approved. The Resolution gives Judge Wilson, who is the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Metcalfe County Nursing Home Corporation, the authority to execute and sign necessary paperwork.
