

Superstars of Boxing event coming to Louisville

BY PAXTON MEDIA GROUP

Superstars of Boxing is set to deliver a night of action in Louisville featuring some of America's top fighters.

Held May 31 at Stooges Bar and Grill, 7123 Grade Lane in Louisville, the boxing event features the city's own Demon-taze 'Juicy' Duncan in the main event, according to a news release from the organization.

"This rising star in the wel-terweight division has been making waves with his explo-sive power and crowd-pleasing style," the release said. "Known for his one-punch knockout ability, Duncan is poised to put on a show for his hometown crowd."

The card also features other talents from Kentucky.

In the co-main event, unde-feated heavyweight Tim "May-hem" Moten will compete. Moten, known as the 'Gorilla of the City' because of his 265-pound frame, is said to be a for-midable hitter. He will put his undefeated record on the line in front of his hometown crowd.

Making his professional debut is Kial Waldon. A native of Paducah, Waldon is the most decorated amateur fighter from Kentucky in more than 30 years, the release said.

He is the first fighter from Kentucky since 1984 to win the National Golden Gloves Cham-pionship. His resume includes the 2023 Olympic Trials, 2024 USA Boxing National Champi-onship, 2024 USA Boxing West-ern Open Championship and the overall No. 1 ranking at 154 pounds.

"Waldon is an exceptional tal-ent, and his debut is not to be missed," the release said.

Skylar Lacy, a 6-foot8 fighter from Las Vegas, will take to the ring for the heavyweight match. He is a former National Golden Gloves champion, having won in 2021.

Joel Mutumbo, a cruiser-weight fighter, is undefeated in the 201-pound division with a record of 8-0 and six knock-outs. Mutumbo, from Congo, is a cousin of former NBA Hall of Famer Dikembe Mutumbo.

Johnell Taylor, a left-hand-ed boxer, will compete in his second professional bout, seek-ing to maintain his unbeaten record.

Troy Davis Jr., a six-time Golden Gloves champion, returns to the ring for his sec-ond professional fight.

The event will feature a total of 12 professional bouts, head-lined by Duncan.

Tickets are available for pur-chase at Eventbrite.com or by contacting the promoter direct-ly at 502-541-1063.

Kentucky gets physical Alabama hoops transfer

BY AARON GERSHON
THE CATS' PAUSE

Mark Pope and Ken-tucky have secured their third transfer portal commitment of the off-season.

On Monday, Alabama transfer power forward Mouhamed Dioubate picked the Wildcats.

Dioubate, a New York native who will have two seasons of eligibility to use at Kentucky, spent each of his first two college seasons at Alabama, playing for Coach Nate Oats.

As a freshman, he helped the Crimson Tide reach the Final Four, averaging 2.9 points and 2.4 rebounds while shooting 47.4% from the field in 33 games off the bench.

While he played a limited role, he did come up big in the Crimson Tide's round of 32 wins over Grand Canyon as he scored nine points, grabbed four rebounds, picked up two steals and had an assist.

This past season, he played in all 37 games off the bench, averaging 16 minutes of playing time. He averaged 7.2 points, 5.9 rebounds, 1.1 assists and one block per game while shooting 61.7% from the field and 46.2% (12-for-26) from 3.

Dioubate had two strong performances against Kentucky as he scored 13 points and grabbed eight rebounds in an SEC Tournament win over the Cats and went for eight points, eight rebounds and three assists in a victory inside Rupp Arena.

He logged six dou-ble-doubles on the season, including 12 points and 12 rebounds against Florida in the SEC Tournament semifinals and 18 points and 10 rebounds in the NCAA Tournament's round of 64 against Robert Mor-ris.

Dioubate scored a season-high 22 points in a regular season win over Vanderbilt, which saw him add 10 rebounds.

Dioubate's 24% defensive rebound percentage ranked fifth-best in the SEC per KenPom, while his 10.8 offensive rebound percentage ranked 16th best in the conference.

He will help bring much-needed physicality and athleticism to the Wildcats and is no stranger to playing in the fast-paced offense run by Pope at Kentucky as Alabama under Oats played at the quickest tempo in all of college basketball this past season.
