QUARTERFINAL: BARDSTOWN 18, WASHINGTON COUNTY 16

The tournament host Tigers prevailed in a wild game that featured 34 runs, 27 base hits and 14 errors as well as 25 walks and 379 pitches between three pitchers Sunday afternoon.

Gracie Edelen was the catalyst at the plate, going 2 for 3 with a three-run homer, six RBIs and two runs. Sharp went 3 for 5 with a double, two RBIs and four runs, and Annabelle Mattingly added three singles, two RBIs and a run.

Angel Williams doubled, drove in two runs and scored three times, and Molly Kisegy doubled, singled and scored twice.

Sophea Baker worked 4 ²/₃ innings to earn the win. She struck out six while giving up eight walks, five hits and four earned runs.

It was a back-and-forth affair throughout, with the Commanders building an 11-5 lead through three innings. Bardstown tied it in the top of the fourth, but Washington County regained the lead with two runs in the bottom half.

The Tigers tied it again in the top of the fifth and took the lead in the sixth, only for the Commanders to surge back in front in the bottom of the sixth.

But Bardstown scored four times in the top of the seventh, with Meredith Mudd scoring on an error, Mattingly drawing a walk, Claire Buzick getting hit by a pitch and Edelen drawing another walk to make it 18-16.

Baker worked around a one-out single by the Commanders' Loren Frantz to end it. Baker struck out the next hitter and induced a pop out to Buzick to wrap up the wild victory.

Also on social media, Kentucky football coach Mark Stoops offered his condolences.

“Our thoughts and prayers are with everyone across the commonwealth affected by yesterday’s horrible storms,” Stoops said. “Our hearts especially go out to those in the Somerset and London communities. We stand with our state through this difficult time, and we thank the first responders for their hard work at rescue and recovery.”
