When the Bible says the word of God is alive and active (Hebrews 4:12), it's not just a churchy saying. It's legit. To me, that means though it was written thousands of years ago, God's Word is relevant, applying to right here and now.

It is good for daily application, no matter our age. It comforts, directs, convicts, encourages. Ephesians 6:17 calls it our weapon: the sword of the Spirit. Read it, memorize it, carry it, share it.

For the past few weeks, I have been obsessed with Psalm 23:4. Smack in the middle of the most famous Psalm, it speaks and speaks loudly.

While some people not familiar with the Bible think Psalm 23 is only a poem most often found on funeral announcements, those who know understand it to be a comforting, loving personal reflection written by a former shepherd who loved God deeply. Psalm 23:4 (NIRV) begins, "Even though I walk through the darkest valley..." Some translations say, "valley of the shadow of death," "valley as dark as death," "dark valley of death," and "valley of deep darkness." We get it. This verse has reminded me often lately that God is a THROUGH God. He's not a leaving

God, but a walking you through God. He takes us THROUGH the valley, THROUGH the hard time. Think of stories in the Bible where God took people THROUGH hard things. Joseph was sold by his brothers, went to a pagan land, falsely accused by his new boss' wife, and put in prison for years. But God was with him. And brought him THROUGH it. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego went

THROUGH the fiery furnace. Daniel was in the lion's den. God brought him THROUGH that scary time. Noah saw the whole earth destroyed. God brought him THROUGH it. David faced an undefeatable giant. God brought him THROUGH it. Now think of times God got you THROUGH some
