Anna Brown adds men's tennis to duties at CU

BY PAXTON MEDIA GROUP

Anna Brown, women's tennis head coach at Campbellsville University, has been tapped to also lead the men's tennis program, Athletic Director Adam Preston announced Monday.

"I am truly honored and humbled to be named head coach of both the men's and women's tennis programs at Campbellsville University, an institution that holds a special place in my heart," Brown said in the announcement. "As a former student-athlete who once competed on these very courts, this opportunity carries deep personal meaning. I'm incredibly grateful to the administration for their trust and support, and I'm excited to lead both programs into a new chapter of growth, discipline and excellence."

In addition to taking the helm of the men's team, Brown enters her third year as the women's tennis head coach. In the 2025 season, Oriana Espinoza was named ITA NAIA All-American.

From Sochi, Russia, Brown was a Lady Tiger from 2011-2015 who was captain of the tennis team, an NAIA All-American Honorable Mention in 2013 and 2015 and was named First-Team All Mid-South Conference four times. Brown graduated from Campbellsville University with a degree in criminal justice administration. She is also a former professional tennis player.

Anna Brown

She resides in Campbellsville and is married to Hunter Brown, who is wide receivers coach of the CU football team.
