Mr. Garrett

Dustin James Garrett, 45, of Sand Hill, went to his Heavenly home Friday, February 21, 2025, at Hospice of Hope at Kenton Pointe in Maysville following a brief illness. He was surrounded by his loving family.

Dustin was born in Maysville on January 28, 1980, a son of Angelique Clark Garrett and the late James M. Garrett. Dustin was a lifelong attendee of Sand Hill Christian Church where he had many friends and loved listening to the music and worshipping with his friends.

A 2001 graduate of Mason County High School's Special Education Program, Dustin enjoyed looking at books and newspapers, family get-togethers, his dog Gypsy, and traveling through the Great Smoky Mountains. Dustin made friends easily by extending his hand for you to shake, as well as through his giggles and infectious laugh, along with a beautiful, sweet smile. One always felt happy around Dustin.

In addition to his mother Angie, survivors include several cousins, friends, and a special cousin, Rita Clark Gill, who babysat him from birth and was his caregiver for over 32 years.

In addition to his father, Jim, Dustin was preceded in death by paternal grandparents, Willie and Esther Mason Garrett; maternal grandparents, William R. and Lucille Mason Clark; and several aunts, uncles, and cousins went to Heaven ahead of Dustin.

Services will be at Noon Tuesday, February 25, 2025, at Tollesboro Funeral Home with Bro. John Byard presiding. Visitation will be after 10:30 a.m. Tuesday. Burial will follow in Wilson Cemetery at Wilson Bottoms.

Pallbearers will be Willie Garrett, Michael Garrett, Devon Garrett, Bryon Walker, David Cummins, and Todd Kingdon.

Honorary pallbearers will be aunts and uncles, Alice Cummins, Connie Sue Garrett, Windell Garrett, and Luther Walker Jr.

In lieu of flowers, memorials are suggested to Sand Hill Christian Church, c/o Robin Taylor, 4073 Trinity Station Road, Vanceburg, KY 41179 or to a charity of choice.

Condolences may be sent at www.globefamilyfc.com.

Tollesboro Lions Club

By Craig Stanfield

The Tollesboro Lions Club has invested in the purchase of an enclosed trailer. The Club has made multiple trips to weather-disaster areas (Eastern Kentucky, North Carolina, Tennessee) to deliver emergency relief materials and has had to rely upon outside services and organize/coordinate arrangements to pick up, transport, deliver and unload relief supplies.

This purchase will permit the Club to make trips using a large enclosed trailer that should assist in less handling of materials, lower deck heights, and other positives (in some areas, the trailer will be easier to back-in, permit it to be unhooked/parked, offer alternatives to loading/unloading, etc.). The Club had the trailer customized with the Lions Club logo.
