

Area Obituary

Mr. McCann

Floyd Dean McCann, 86, of Vanceburg, passed away Thursday, November 20, 2025, at Maysville Nursing and Rehabilitation.

He was born at Trinity on April 2, 1939, a son of the late Harold and Beatrice McCall McCann.

Dean was a devoted follower of Jesus Christ and member of Salem Community Church where he loved to attend.

He was a farmer, carpenter, and tobacco warehouse floorperson. He served 52 years as a director of Farmers Home Mutual Insurance Company of Mason and Fleming counties. He enjoyed dining out and visiting with neighbors, friends, and family.

Survivors include two stepdaughters, Tammy (David) Ramey and Beth (Brent) Conley; two stepsons, Patrick Colegrove and Matthew Colegrove; three brothers, Tom (Kitty) McCann, William (Pat) McCann, and Jim (Sue) McCann; and a sister-in-law, Daisy McCann. Many other family members and friends will sadly miss him.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife of 21 years, Evelyn Coalgrove McCann; two sisters, Kathleen (Jerry) McCox and Darlene Benning; and two brothers, Carl McCann and Don (Ellen) McCann.

Services will be at Noon Tuesday, November 25, 2025, at Tollesboro Funeral Home and Cremation Services, 11918 KY 57 at Tollesboro, with Bro. Danny Butler officiating. Burial will be in Hillcrest Garden of Memories in Mason County.

Friends may visit after 10:00 a.m. Tuesday, November 25, 2025, at Tollesboro Funeral Home.

Pallbearers will be Matthew Colegrove, Patrick Colegrove, Perry Polley, Andrew Story, Matthew Story, and Jerry Underwood.

Condolences may be sent at www.globefamilyfc.com.

Being Thankful

I am writing this on the Thursday before Thanksgiving. This is the time of year when most people try to be as thankful as we should be all year long. It is also the time of year when we dig out the pants with the stretchy waistband, because we tend to overindulge at holiday meals.

We have so much to be thankful for! And it is right that we do so. The words "thank", "thankful", "thanksgiving" in some various forms occur in the Bible nearly 150 times. The Bible often urges us to give thanks. We Christians ought to be the most thankful people on earth because of all the blessings and promises we have through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

One of the most commonly preached texts on thanksgiving is Luke 17:11-19, which records the account of Jesus healing ten men who had leprosy. Of the ten who were healed, only one returned to give Jesus thanks. From this Scripture we can glean several important truths about thanksgiving.

First, we should be quick

An Encouraging Word

By Tom Cox

to give thanks. As soon as the man realized he had been healed he came back to thank Jesus. Don't put off being thankful. If we hesitate or procrastinate, we may fail to give thanks at all. If it isn't a part of your nature already, cultivate an attitude of gratitude. Being thankful should come natural to those who have been blessed by Jesus.

Secondly, this man was quite vocal with his thanksgiving. The Scripture says that he praised God in a loud voice. Our gratitude should not be a secret between us and God. Others should hear our thanksgiving being expressed loudly and clearly.

Third, we need to notice that Jesus seems to expect us to be thankful. When only one man came back to thank Jesus for the healing that he had received, Jesus asked where the other nine were. Had they not been healed also? Where was their expression of thanksgiving? Jesus appears to be disappointed in their lack of gratitude. We should always strive to give the gratitude that Jesus expects and deserves, not just during the holiday season, but every single day of our lives.

"And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him."—Colossians 3:17.
