the Humanities and poured every dime back into places that were devastated by flood waters because it is our mission to help Kentucky communities thrive.

We wanted then, and want now, to be part of the rebuilding of Kentucky’s communities ravaged by flooding, but we can’t. Why? Because at the federal level, DOGE has targeted the NEH and terminated Kentucky Humanities’ operating grant and any emergency funding sources that previously allowed us to provide aid in the Commonwealth.

We are sorry, but most of all we are angry because you and us — we — are the ones looking out for Kentucky and all Kentuckians.

If you’re angry, too, please contact our elected officials and insist they support continued funding of the NEH and Kentucky Humanities. Together, our voices can make a difference.

JESUS

general population mocked Him and eventually agreed to publicly execute Him on the grounds of blasphemy. For what? Simply and truthfully admitting He was the Son of God. Sadly, things have not really changed that much as He is still considered a heretic and His followers are persecuted. As Christians we know He is The way, The truth, and The life, and Him resurrecting from the dead proves He is the light of the world, The bread of life, and no one can convince us otherwise.

Jesus was constantly approached by those in desperate need and is His nature and character to be concerned and compassionate. Nothing has changed, He is still the same. The world has always been filled with human suffering and He is always ready to respond with love, grace, and mercy. He sees and hears everything, especially when someone calls upon Him to forgive and save them. Two thousand years later He is still pouring out His grace and forgiveness to anyone that will call upon His name. “You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you” Psalm 86:5. “But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us” Romans 5:8. “And so we know and rely on the love God has for us. God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in them” I John 4:16.

There is only one reason Jesus allowed Himself to be crucified. He loved us. One of the core truths about our responsibility as His followers is that we allow His love to saturate and overflow within us. We seldom think about it, but He commands us to take up our cross and to die to self so that we can be resurrected as a new creation in Christ. As we meditate on His victorious mission, we are given a deeper understanding of who He is, and how He desires to live through us. Beyond the new clothes, the feasting, and the Easter festivities and customs, may we give honor and worship to our Creator who rescued us from our hopelessness. Dear friend, without being forgiven for our sins, we are carrying the weights and chains of misery in this life and the punishment of sin in the next. Come to Jesus today and He will save you and change your life forever.
