First triple-wide custom container home anchored in Mayfield

On July 22, Mayfield witnessed a powerful example of what collaboration can achieve. The very first triple-wide custom container home was anchored to its foundation on Cardinal Road in the city, marking a major milestone. According to a press release, this home is the first of many to come. They are built through the combined efforts of dedicated organizations working together to bring last change not only in Mayfield, but across the country.

Wingo Water Line Public Hearing Notice

To all interested citizens of Wingo, Kentucky:

The Kentucky Department for Local Government is accepting application material under the 2025 Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program. The City of Wingo intends to apply for assistance to renovate, upgrade, and improve the City's Water Lines. The improved facility will offer services that meet the needs of the surrounding community and Wingo with safer and more robust functional equipment. The City of Wingo will hold a public hearing prior to the submission of the pre-submission form. The public hearing will be held on Monday, August 11, 2025, at 2:00pm at Wingo City Hall. The purpose of this hearing is to obtain views on housing and community development needs, review proposed activities, review the proposed application, and solicit public comments. Technical assistance is available to help groups representing low and moderate income persons in developing proposals.

The following information concerning the CDBG program is available for public inspection at the City of Wingo City Hall, 9606 US-45 during regular business hours:

Amount of funds available and range of activities that may be undertaken.
Estimated amounts of funds proposed to be used for activities benefiting persons of low and moderate income.
Plans for minimizing displacement of persons as a result of activities associated with CDBG funds and plans for providing assistance to those persons to be actually displaced as a result of CDBG-funded activities.
Records regarding the past use of CDBG funds.
A summary of other important program requirements.

Comments on Application

A copy of the CDBG application material will be on file at the City of Wingo City Hall 9606 US-45 for citizens' review and comment during regular business hours from June 30, 2025, through August 8, 2025. Comments on the proposed application may be submitted to the attention of Mayor Charles Shelby until the close of business on August 8, 2025.

Discrimination Clause

The City of Wingo does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion or disability, and provides, upon request, reasonable accommodation, including auxiliary aids and services, to afford an individual with a disability an equal opportunity to participate in all services, programs and activities. Any persons requiring special needs assistance should contact the Mayor's Office at (270) 376-2286 at least five days prior to the meeting. The TDD number for the hearing impaired is 1/800-648-6057 (or local number if available).

Poet Walker to visit western Kentucky

TRIGG COUNTY, Ky. — Kentucky Poet Laureate Frank X. Walker will visit western Kentucky for two public events in August and September, offering readings and discussions of his literary and visual art.

Walker will speak at the Janice Mason Art Museum in Cadiz on Saturday, Aug. 16, at 5:30 p.m., as part of the museum's ARTalks Series, according to a news release from Dr. Carrie Jerrell of Murray State University. The event, titled "From Word to Image and Back Again," will explore Walker's dual practice in visual and literary arts. His visit is supported by Genesis Express, a Trigg County nonprofit.

Walker will return to the region on Thursday, Sept. 4, for a reading and discussion at 7:30 p.m. in the Curris Center Ballroom on the campus of Murray State University. Both events are free and open to the public.

A native of Danville, Walker is the first African American writer to be named Kentucky Poet Laureate. He has authored 15 collections of poetry, including "Turn Me Loose: The Unghosting of Medgar Evers," which won the 2014 NAACP Image Award for Poetry and a Black Caucus American Library Association Honor Award. His latest book, "Load in Nine Times," gives voice to Black Civil War soldiers. In addition to his writing, Walker has worked in visual art and comics. His exhibit, "We Wear the Mask: Black Superheroes through the Ages," showcases his collection of Black superhero memorabilia and has been displayed at venues including the Lyric Theatre in Lexington and Purdue University. His recent multimedia art collection, "Black Star Seed: When Mi Cyaan Find Di Words," was exhibited at the Carnegie Center for Literacy and Learning.

Puzzmo REDESIGN

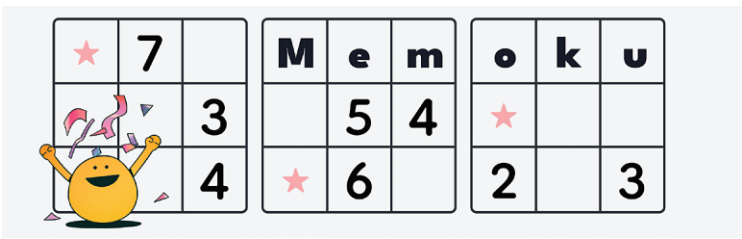

MAYFIELD-MESSENGER.COM/PUZZLES

Your (new) place for thoughtful puzzles.

The Puzzmo team has been hard at work making some site improvements that you'll start to see rolling out soon.

- There are a lot of subtle changes but a few big ones are worth noting:
1. You'll notice a more comfortable playing experience on the Games page. There's more focus on the game itself and you'll have more control over which layers you want to experience alongside the game. This design maximizes the amount of space on the page that the game occupies, so you can play comfortably on any screen size.
 2. The Today page will be streamlined and easier to navigate. The toolbar beneath the header and your daily progress will be incorporated into the main header, giving more space for games and making it easier to find the archives.
 3. It'll be easier to manage your social connections. Our players are a lot more interested in leaderboards, daily news, and profile stats than trying to collaborate on a typeshift. You'll see some straightforward changes to simplify managing your friends and groups.
- So why are we doing all this?

Think of it like spring cleaning. As we continue to make Puzzmo bigger and better, that means more games, more players, and more things to do! We need to make sure that the site is easy and intuitive to use, focuses on gameplay, and looks good.
