Wright to keep the Mayfield spark alive.

Carleigh Robertson would land some well-placed balls for Graves, including a pair midway through the second to go up 16-15. Mayfield stayed composed, and with Graves knocking on the door to take the 2-0 lead, the Lady Cardinals put the second set away, 25-23.

All tied up at 1-1, the goal for both teams was to take control of the night and shifting the momentum. In true fashion, the score was knotted closely. The deciding factor would be yet another service ace from Vaca to seal the set 25-23 again.

The fourth set started out in favor of the home team as Mayfield took an early 7-2 lead. The Lady Eagles fought their way back to tie up the set 10-10 and it was an endurance race from there. Graves took a small lead at 13-11, but Mayfield stayed poised, just as coach Lacewell mentioned and finished off the night 25-13.

The win marks an important one for Mayfield as they turn their attention to the First Region All “A” Classic this weekend.

“This builds a lot of momentum heading into the Class A,” Lacewell said. “We played Ballard Memorial early, didn’t give a good showing in that one, so maybe we found our groove now, playing as a team to make the difference this go around.”

playoffs roll around.

“We’re getting better. We have extremely young guys up front that are making their first varsity starts. Every week it’s just taking steps in the right direction. Play calling wise, we’re still learning what we can be good at, and executing those things. We have to be better as a coaching staff about getting the ball to our athletes in space. We’re really focused on that this week for prep. Those are the areas we need to get better at.”

Improvement has been a focal point for the Eagles this season, and they will continue to do so as this young squad goes through more and more reps throughout the season.

The sky is the limit for this Graves County squad as they continue to gel together as a cohesive unit every week. Their schedule has been tough, and still continue to play strong opponents like this Friday night against the Tigers. The offense will begin to click as the consistency of the squad improves with more reps on the football field.

Their Friday night matchup against the Tigers will take place at Ty Holland Stadium in Murray, with kickoff scheduled for 7 p.m.

When the two messengers in white told the men of Galilee in Acts 1:11, “This same Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven,” they were referring to the Second Coming of Christ to earth, to set up His Millennial Kingdom. Jesus came the first time as a baby in humility, and will return as the eternal King of all glory. Christ, whom His disciples watched return into heaven, will return to earth again with His church in the same way, in the clouds, accompanied by a host of angels. This is describing His “Day of the Lord” when He will defeat Satan and destroy the armies at Armageddon. This Second (and only) coming happens at the “end” of the seven-year Tribulation, but before His 1000-year reign on earth.
