Celebrating Earth Day

Photos by HAWKINS TEAGUE / Ledger & Times

Multiple organizations set up tables Tuesday on the quad at Murray State University to recognize Earth Day. Above, the Earth and Environmental Sciences Club and Sigma Gamma Epsilon Earth Honor Society gave away free succulents, and students could also decorate miniature flower pots using recycled paint. Pictured, from left, are Delaney McCoy, Hannah Murphy, Shayna Conley, Taylor Coleman and Roger Brown.

Jackie Morgan with the MSU Department of Facilities Management helps Aeden Heckard, a freshman from Buchanan, Tennessee, wrap newspaper around the roots of one of the small tulip poplar trees the department was giving away. Murray State was recently recognized by the National Arbor Foundation as a 2024 Tree Campus for "its dedication to enhancing community well-being through tree education, investment and community engagement," a news release said.

HOROSCOPES

ARIES
(March 21-April 19)

Change will happen exponentially. One move will have three effects, and suddenly, there are nine results, then 27, and on and on. Whatever you give, make sure it's golden and something that will have a benefit when duplicated and amplified.

TAURUS
(April 20-May 20)

You'll be detoured, but that doesn't mean you'll be off course. Maybe it's not for everyone, but this is the right path for you. It will provide just the right amount of challenge and the most fitting rewards.

GEMINI
(May 21-June 21)

Trust in the processes you can't control, which will be most of them. All you have to control is one little wheel to get exactly where you want to go. Life is a barge, and the hands on the captain's wheel are yours.

CANCER
(June 22-July 22)

To be overly focused on seeking approval or trying to be liked by others would only diminish your ability to be graceful in social situations. Instead of relying on others for validation, cultivate your own sense of happiness and comfort.

LEO
(July 23-Aug. 22)

Balance is key, not just in work but also in play and passion. Overindulging, even in things you love, can lead to burnout or diminish their value. Taking breaks and moderating your intensity allows you to sustain your energy over time.

VIRGO
(Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

You're not always in the mood to compete, but when it's game time, you will rise to the occasion regardless. That winning instinct will kick in as the spirit of competition fuels and quickens you.

LIBRA
(Sept. 23-Oct. 23)

By respecting and valuing yourself the way you want others to, you set the standard for how they should treat you. Let go of something you were doing just to gain someone's approval. It signals to others that you won't compromise yourself.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24-Nov. 21)

Even though you could point out the problems around you, why not save them for your notebook? You'll put it to good use, jotting down both issues and what's going right -- so when the time comes to speak, you'll do so thoughtfully.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

You wish for fresh delights. Have you used up all the opportunities for joy in your immediate environment? Of course not, but it takes someone new on the scene to stir things up and reveal the hidden magic still waiting to be explored.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

The need for approval and acceptance is primal -- a form of intelligence evolved over millennia. It's not a weakness but a fact of the human condition. It's totally natural to care a little more about validation than we want to.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

Love is a quality of attention. The opposite of love isn't hate -- it's neglect. Where there is a lack of focus and interaction, there's a lack of love. You'll take the initiative to actively engage, listen and nurture connections. Love thrives.

PISCES
(Feb. 19-March 20)

Returning to the basics is in order. It would be easy to get so caught up in advanced techniques or ideas that you overlook the power of the fundamentals. Going back to the core principles will uncover anything you might have missed.
