

TAX

said Carrollton has resisted adopting an occupational tax on top of the county's because it would "double tax" city residents. Wilhoite said he thinks the measure will ultimately fail during the 2025 General Assembly. However, he said the cities and counties that have much to lose need to remain vigilant as the session continues to make sure the measure is not attached to a more popular bill as an amendment and piggyback its way into becoming the law.
