

Reds rally for 3rd straight win, 8th of last 10

CINCINNATI — TJ Friedl hit a decisive two-out, two-run double in the sixth inning and the Cincinnati Reds rallied for their third straight win, 6-5 over the Minnesota Twins on Tuesday night.

Cincinnati has won eight of its last 11 games to climb within two games of the third NL wild-card spot.

Byron Buxton's solo homer off Andrew Abbott put the Twins ahead 1-0 in the third. Buxton had reached over the center field wall to rob Cincinnati's Will Benson of a solo home run to end the second inning before hitting his solo shot just over Friedl's glove in nearly the same spot.

David Festa held Cincinnati hitless until the fourth when Benson's two-run double put the Reds ahead 2-1.

Festa left the game in the fourth with a right hand contusion after allowing four runs, two earned.

Jake Fraley drove in two more runs with a single to make the score 4-1.

Home plate umpire Tony Randazzo, center, speaks with Cincinnati Reds' Tyler Stephenson (37) and Minnesota Twins' Ryan Jeffers after being hit by a pitch during the second inning of a baseball game on Tuesday in Cincinnati.

Encarnacion-Strand opened the door for a Twins rally in the sixth. Harrison Bader's three-run homer caromed over the wall off Fraley's glove to put them ahead 5-4.

Abbott allowed five runs, but only one earned, dropping his ERA to 1.84. He struck out five and didn't walk a batter.

Friedl's double in the sixth off Brock Stewart (1-1) drove home the go-ahead runs.

Emilio Pagan pitched a scoreless ninth to earn his 17th save. Scott Barlow (2-0) earned the victory for Cincinnati with 1 1/3 innings, striking out two.

One of the big plays of the game was when Buxton reached over the center field wall to rob Benson of a solo home run to end the second then came to bat with one out in the third and hit a solo homer just over Friedl's glove in nearly the same spot.

The Reds had rallied to beat the Tigers 8-4 on Tuesday in Detroit as Elly De La Cruz homered — a two-run shot in the ninth that gave him home runs in a career-best four straight games — scored three times and drove in three runs.

De La Cruz hit .462 with four homers, six RBIs and eight runs scored during Cincinnati's 4-2 road trip

Meanwhile, the Reds have placed right-handed reliever Graham Ashcraft on the 15-day injured list with a right groin strain. To fill Ashcraft's spot in the bullpen, the Reds recalled hard-throwing rookie Luis Mey from Triple-A Louisville Tuesday. Mey has made 14 appearances, going 1-0 with a 4.15 ERA with 14 strikeouts in 13 innings. Ashcraft is one of the Reds' most dependable relievers. But in his most recent outing in Sunday's 8-4 win at Detroit, he allowed three hits and two earned runs in one inning.

Cincinnati is tied for third in the National League Central but has won eight of its last 10 games.
