Dennis Ray Kassinger

ROCKPORT — Dennis Ray Kassinger, 70, of Rockport, passed away on Friday, June 6, 2025. He was born on March 12, 1955, to the late Lonnie and Elizabeth Marie Durbin Kassinger, of Hartford. He is reunited with his late wife of 30 years, Layce Ann Lindsey Kassinger, in Heaven.

Dennis was a retired iron worker from Local 103 in Evansville. He loved arrowhead hunting, morrel hunting, metal detecting, University of Kentucky basketball, playing spoons, and his family and friends. His greatest joy in life was his daughter, Emily June Kassinger. He loved to hear her play guitar and sing. He left this earth while Emily was singing his favorite song.

In addition to his parents and beloved wife, he was preceded in death by his sister, Joyce Autry; brother, Mark Kassinger; and brothers-in-law, Butch Autry and Buddy Pierce.

Those surviving him are his daughter, Emily June Kassinger, of Owensboro; sisters, Nancy Pierce, of Hartford, and Lisa (Butch) Pinson, of Beaver Dam; brothers, Jeff (Sue) Kassinger, of Hartford, Harold Kassinger, of Livermore, Lonnie Kassinger, of Hartford, Bruce Kassinger, of Hartford, and Kent (Kay) Kassinger, of Beaver Dam; sister-in-law, Donna Kassinger; as well as many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

A memorial was held on the family farm on June 14. Care entrusted to Cardinal Cremation Society.

Lesley Dawn King

HARTFORD — Lesley Dawn King, 26, of Hartford, passed away June 13, 2025. She was born Jan. 26, 1999, in Daviess County to Brian King and Glenna Lindsey Embry.

Lesley was a behavioral technician for Puzzle Pieces in Owensboro. She obtained her bachelor's degree from WKU and she attended Second Baptist Church in Hartford. She loved her family, friends and her pets and enjoyed spending time with them.

She is preceded in death by her grandfathers, Dennis Jackson and G.W. Lindsey.

Those left to cherish her memory are her father, Brian (Wendy) King; mother, Glenna Lindsey Embry; fiancé, Kyle Beatty; sisters, Morgan King and Faith (Kenton) Desmond; grandparents, Gary King, Sharon Jackson and Carmen Lindsey; aunt, Angela Cook; cousin, Dylan Decker; and her beloved fur babies, Ollie and Bailey.

A service was held June 16 at Bevil Bros. Funeral Home in Beaver Dam, with Dr. Roger Taylor officiating. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery.

Margie Leola Johnson

HARTFORD — Margie Leola Johnson, 76, of Hartford, passed away peacefully on June 12, 2025, at her home under the care of her family and Hospice of Ohio County. She was born on May 19, 1949, to Willard and Daisy Coles. She was the widow of Earl Thomas Johnson, to whom she was married for 55 years, and worked alongside at the Reliable Dental Lab.

Leola was a delight to everyone who knew her, had a heart for serving others, and was always ready to offer a hug to anyone. She was a volunteer for Ohio County 4-H and a previous member of the Beaver Dam Woman's Club for many years. She was a lifetime member of Plainview General Baptist Church. Leola was passionate about spending precious time with family and did so at every opportunity for special celebrations and gatherings. An exceptional cook, she was known for her delicious homemade meals and desserts.

Leola is survived by her son, David Johnson (Tonya), of Hartford; her grandson, Luke Johnson of Henderson, Nev.; her sister, Elsie Epley of Russellville; her brother-in-law, Ray Johnson, of Cape Coral, Fla.; two nephews; three nieces; several great and great-great nieces and nephews.

A funeral service will be held at 1 p.m. on Thursday, June 19, at Plainview General Baptist Church in Auburn, with Brother Arno Kranz presiding. Visitation for family and friends will be from 11 a.m. until the time of service at the church. Her burial will be at Plainview Cemetery in Auburn. Bevil Brothers Funeral Home in Beaver Dam is in charge of the arrangements.

In lieu of flowers and memorial gifts, the family requests donations be made to Gideons International or Hospice of Ohio County.

Online condolences may be sent to bevilbrosfuneralhomes.com.

Marie Hoover

HARTFORD — It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Marie Hoover, who departed this life on June 14, 2025, in her cherished hometown of Hartford. Just days shy of her 100th birthday on June 20, she leaves behind a rich tapestry of loving memories and a legacy of kindness.

Born to the late Walter Z. Workman and the late Bessie Cross Workman, Marie was a guiding light in the lives of many. She was the devoted wife of the late Lewis D. Hoover and a loving mother to her late daughter, Dianne Hoover. Her heart was further warmed by the joy of a great-granddaughter, Alivia Faith Burgess, who is dearly missed.

Marie was not only a talented beautician, known for her skill and artistry, but she was also a pillar of faith as the oldest member of Barnetts Creek Baptist Church. Her unwavering spirit and deep faith will continue to inspire all who had the privilege to know her. Marie is survived by her beloved family: daughters, Jeanne Seay (Mike), of Hartford, Kathy Patterson (Virgil), of Beaver Dam, and Karen Cornett-Raymer (Charles), of Hartford, as well as six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. She will also be remembered fondly by several nieces and nephews, each carrying a piece of her legacy in their hearts.

Visitation for Mrs. Hoover will be held on Wednesday, June 18, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Hartford Funeral Home. A funeral service will follow at 1 p.m., led by Brother Jonathan McCree, honoring a life beautifully lived. Marie will be laid to rest in Barnetts Creek Cemetery, where her spirit will join the embrace of the community she loved so dearly.

In this time of reflection, we invite all who knew and loved Marie to share their condolences and memories at www.hartfordfh.com. May her gentle soul find peace, and may her legacy continue to shine brightly in the hearts of those she touched.

Jeanette Allene Snodgrass

HARTFORD — Jeanette Allene Snodgrass, 97, formerly of Centertown, passed away June 17, 2025, with her family by her side. She was born in Ohio County on April 22, 1928, to the late Clarence and Maggie White Morris.

Jeanette was an employee of Ohio County Hospital for 19 years. She and her husband were members of the Lamplighters Trio and she was a member of Centertown Tabernacle Church. She was an amazing cook and authored two cookbooks. She was made a Kentucky Colonel in 2024.

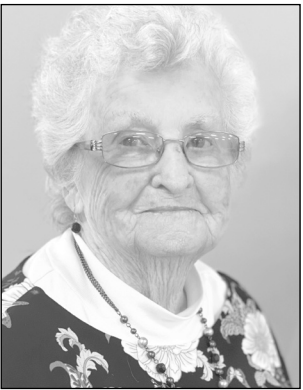

In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband, Truman Snodgrass; eight siblings; and her son-in-law, Cecil Bowlds.

Those left to cherish her memory are her children, Jerry (Billy Jean) Snodgrass, Shelta (Jimmy) Reno, Bruce (Betty) Snodgrass, Portia Snodgrass, Benny (Lynn) Snodgrass and Brad (Lisa) Snodgrass; 16 grandchildren; 34 great-grandchildren; nine great-great grandchildren; and her only living sibling, Bill Morris.

The family would like to extend a special thanks to Dogwood Retreat and to Linda James, a special friend to Mom and our family.

A service will be held Thursday, June 19, at 1 p.m. at Bevil Bros. Funeral Home in Beaver Dam, with Brother Marty Bowlds officiating. Friends may visit with the family from 10 a.m. until time of service at the funeral home. Burial will follow in Oakwood Cemetery.
