

Pope Leo breaks from papal dress codes with White Sox cap

Fathers, may we do all we can to deserve respect and honor. May we be fatherly to all in the generations that follow us. Children, do all you can to honor your fathers (and mothers). It is a reflection on your character and saves the dignity of the generations before you.

His devotion to the

Though Francis' most iconic sartorial moment wasn't real, his tenure saw broader enthusiasm for evidence of a more contemporary and relaxed papal authority. The Argentinian pope departed from archaic and ornate accessories favored by Pope Benedict XVI — including his bright red leather loafers — opting for humble, simple robes and sensible black shoes with an orthopedic sole.
