

JUDGES

set up the cases.

There are neat features in which immediate requirements for drug tests can be ordered. The state can quickly force the individuals to comply with the judge's order, saving time.

During one recent proceeding, one party member was testifying from Australia.

She likes the fact that a participant in the process has options. They can either attend a hearing in her courtroom or they can do it remotely, which saves a person from having to take off work to attend.
